CRAVILLION EARNS ENDORSEMENTS FROM LOCAL LEADERS THROUGHOUT THE FIRST SENATE DISTRICT

Support from city, county and town officials reflects growing campaign momentum

NEW FRANKEN, WI — State Senate Candidate Nic Cravillion announced today that he has received endorsements of several elected local officials from communities throughout Wisconsin's First Senate District.

"The endorsements that matter most in this race come from local leaders who know their communities best. They've earned the trust of the people they serve, understand the issues facing Northeast Wisconsin, and I'm honored to have earned their support," said Cravillion.

Officials announcing their endorsements of Nic Cravillion for State Senate include:

- New Holstein Mayor and former Police Captain Jeffrey Hebl
- Brown County Supervisor Norbert Dantine, Jr.
- Town of Ahnapee Chairman Tom Stoller
- Town of Ahnapee Clerk Phil Steffen
- Town of Carlton Chairman David Hardtke
- Town of Green Bay Chairman Matt Bosman
- Town of Green Bay Supervisor Ryan DeBroux, New Franken Fire Chief
- Town of Green Bay Supervisor Mike Pribyl
- Town of Lincoln Chairman Jesse Jerabek
- Town of Luxemburg Treasurer Gerald Zellner
- Town of Scott Chairman Mike VanLanen
- Town of Union Chairman Bruce Alberts

"Northeast Wisconsin has always been home. Growing up here, raising my family here, and working alongside our local communities for years has allowed me to earn the trust of many local leaders. I'm grateful for their confidence, and as your State Senator, I'll continue working alongside our local communities to deliver results for the people of the First Senate District," said Cravillion.
