PRO-LIFE WISCONSIN ENDORSES NIC CRAVILLION FOR STATE SENATE

Announcement reflects campaign's commitment to protect all innocent human life

NEW FRANKEN, WI — Nic Cravillion, candidate for the Wisconsin First Senate District, announced today that he has received the endorsement of Pro-Life Wisconsin, one of the leading pro-family advocacy groups in the state. The endorsement recognizes Cravillion's commitment to serving as a 100 percent pro-life legislator when elected.

"As the father of two, and informed by my faith, I firmly believe that human life is a sacred gift from God, and must be protected in law," said Cravillion.

Cravillion has worked for over five years as the district director for retiring State Senator André Jacque, who was recently described by Pro-Life Wisconsin as "the strongest and most effective pro-life legislator in the history of the Wisconsin Legislature."

"Senator Jacque has long been a mentor and role model of mine, and I am committed to bringing the same energy and dedication that he demonstrated to defending the fundamental right to life of all innocent persons from conception until natural death," said Cravillion. "That includes ensuring that no Wisconsin taxpayer dollars are used to finance abortion providers such as Planned Parenthood."

Pro-Life Wisconsin has fought for over 30 years "to restore and protect the inalienable right to life of all citizens of our state, whether born or pre-born, young, old, disabled, or terminally ill."
