Pre-show Materials

What to expect at Footlighters
Theater

I am going to Footlighter's Theater to see
A Christmas Carol. There will be singing, dancing,
bright lights, and loud music.

When I get there a theater volunteer will welcome me and check a list before I go inside.

Some fidgets and communication sheets will be available in the box office.

A festive holiday scene featuring a lit candle in a brass holder on the right, a Christmas tree with red ornaments on the far right, and a window with a snowy view in the background. The foreground is decorated with greenery and red berries.

I can choose my own seat.

The show will begin at 2:00. The show happens mostly on the stage, but the actors will sometimes come off the stage. There are times the actors will be moving through the aisles.

The show will last an hour and a half. There will be no intermission, but if I need to take a quiet break during the show, I can go outside and sit on a bench or at the picnic table. I can also go downstairs and sit on a couch or chair.

There will be no Intermission.
There will be concessions sold before the show, and I can use the bathroom any time during the show. The bathrooms are downstairs.

About the Performance

The characters in the show are based on the story
A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens.

A festive Christmas scene. In the foreground, a lit candle in a brass holder is positioned on the right, casting a warm glow. The background features a Christmas tree decorated with red berries and lights, and a window looking out onto a snowy night. The overall atmosphere is cozy and celebratory.

A Christmas Carol is a story written by Charles Dickens. This show is a musical, and includes a lot of singing and dancing.

In some scenes the actors appear to be mean or scared. They are telling a story and pretending.

Characters

Ebenezer Scrooge

Mr. Scrooge a grumpy and selfish man who hates Christmas.

In this show there is one main actor who plays Scrooge, but there are scenes in which other actors who play Scrooge at 10, 12, and 20 years old.

Characters

Jacob Marley

Marley was Scrooge's business partner before he died. He appears to Scrooge as a ghost on Christmas Eve. He is an actor wearing makeup to look like a ghost. Marley sings a song and other cast members dance with him on the stage. They are pretending to be ghosts.

Characters

Jacob Marley visits Scrooge to tell him that he should change his heart and start to be kind to others. He tells him that there will be 3 other ghosts to help him understand why it is important to be kind. The 3 ghosts are sometimes funny and they sing and dance.

Characters

The Cratchit Family

Bob Cratchit works for Mr. Scrooge. His son, Tiny Tim, is sick, and he doesn't have a lot of money to take care of his family. Scrooge learns that they even though they don't have money, they are happy because they have each other.

Characters

Ensemble

The ensemble is a group of actors who sing and dance in a lot of scenes. They play many characters, including the people of the town.

When the play is over the actors will take a bow. People will clap to thank the actors. If it is too loud, I can cover my ears. After the show is over the actors will come out to meet the audience.

A festive holiday scene. In the foreground, a lit candle in a brass holder stands on the right, casting a warm glow. To its left, a decorated Christmas tree is partially visible, adorned with red berries. The background features a window with a view of a snowy city at night, with lights from buildings and street lamps visible through the snow-covered glass. The overall atmosphere is cozy and celebratory.
