

Attention Western Dressage Riders!

(If you're not showing in Western Dressage next weekend, you can skip this—most of the information below won't apply.)

Arena & Show Office Details

- Western Dressage classes will be held in the outdoor arena.
- The Show Office will be located in the main building of the facility and opens at 8:00 a.m. on Friday, April 25th.
- The Scorekeeper/Announcer's Booth will be located beside the dressage arena outside.

Judge

- Saturday & Sunday: Brian MacMahon "R"

Arrival & Check-In

- Ride times are now posted here and on our website: www.showfchc.com.
- Stall charts will be posted next week.
- Upon arrival, if you reserved a stall, it will be unlocked and shavings will be placed nearby.
- RV spots are available on a first-come, first-served basis and are not assigned.
- All riders must check in at the Show Office to collect their entry packet. Entry packets will not be released without having received the applicable membership cards and registration papers.

Facility Use & Competition Rules

- Schooling: The dressage ring will be open for schooling on Friday, April 25th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
- No schooling will be allowed near the dressage on Saturday, as classes will be running. A designated schooling area will be available outside of the area.
- No longeing is allowed in the dressage ring.
- Back numbers must be worn at all times while mounted or leading/longeing a horse during competition days. This does not apply if prepping for the APHA/PtHA/All Breed show.

Scores & Awards

- Scores will be posted outside the Scorekeeper/Announcer's Booth.
- Pinned classes and tests can be picked up from the Scorekeeper/Announcer's Booth.
- Ribbons and High-Point/Reserve High-Point Awards can be picked up at the Show Office. High-Point results will be announced after all classes have concluded for the day.
