5. Updates:

5.1 NCC

Angela has taken the NCC chair position until the Annual General Election meeting. Dustin Piche has been hired for the maintenance position. The dishwasher has been taken in for repair work. The sewer system needed a plumber and the men's washroom has had new toilets installed. The chairs have been sorted, the broken ones have been discarded and more are needed. The NCC has paid for smart serve courses for volunteers. The fish derby is being organized and planned for March 8th and 9th.

5.2 NEST

December was reported to have 4 medical calls and no fire calls. Training is ongoing for January and February, and first responders are updating. Two volunteers have recently joined and are in training now. One volunteer is interested in joining. The 50/50 is still being utilized as a fundraiser.

6. Correspondence:

6.1 Email from MND re changes to NSBA effective August 1, 2025

The letter was read by the chair, and the changes were briefly discussed. The chair will be attending a Teams session overview organized by the ministry to further discuss the modernization to the NSBA.
