Message from NCC President

Here it is, a cold and gloomy day outside but inside there's a pot of soup simmering on the stove and supper is happily cooking in the slow cooker on the counter. I hope to get in my craft room later to do some much needed mending and sewing. I love my craft room because I can go in there and get lost in so many projects. With a large TV and plenty of movies to watch, I am in good company.

With the arrival of spring we are having our first actual rain day, which we really need. I will be out in the vegetable garden tomorrow checking on my garlic. From the kitchen window it looks like it's coming up so time to remove the mulch that protected the rows during the winter. I just hope the weather warms up so I can get the garden planted soon. My tomatoes are getting taller every day and I hate to see them get all leggy from searching for the sun. I have several flats of tomatoes scattered on tables, the floor and my mini greenhouse in the dining room, along with an assortment of herbs and flowers.

Speaking of rain, that reminds me of our Volunteer Fire Fighters who have been so busy as their grass fire season has started up quickly. They do one heck of a job as first responders as well as fire fighters and I would like to say a big THANK YOU to each and every one of them. They make many sacrifices for their jobs in keeping our community and its residents safe. So, if you see them out and about, take the time to say hello and thank them for the good job they are doing. As well, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our Nolalu Community Centre Volunteers who help so much with all the activities we have going throughout the year. If not for their hard work, we would not be able to have these events etc. at the centre. So, another big THANK YOU to you as well. And remember, you can't put a price on their value as they are priceless.

With that said, I would just like to remind everyone to get out to vote in the Provincial Elections in June. Take care everyone and have a wonderful, happy and carefree summer.

Phyllis Garton,
President

Gateway Nolalu

by Leo Hunnako

Issue #11

The Pee Dee opens up the Nolalu region

In 1882-'83, the Canadian Pacific Railway arrived in northwestern Ontario. Port Arthur, on the north shore of Lake Superior, became an important gateway. The influx of immigrants who settled in the Thunder Bay rural areas started around 1876 and grew dramatically from 1900 to 1930. Rail access in and out of the interior became vital for tapping into resources such as minerals (silver and iron), forest products (lumber) and to establish farms and rural settlements.

Between 1889 and early 1890's, the firm of Middleton and Conmee constructed what was officially called the Port Arthur, Duluth and Western Railway, commonly known as the "Pee-Dee" or simply the "P.D." The railway was officially opened on June 1, 1893. Its 85 miles (137 kms) of track began in Port Arthur, followed a south-westerly course through Fort William, Neebing, Paipoonge, O'Connor, Gillies, Lybster and Strange Townships. It continued as far as Gunflint Lake, six miles beyond the American border. The link up with Duluth was ultimately never completed. Back then, there was regular train service once a week as far as North Lake on the U.S. border and a daily run as far as Mackie's Siding, on the north shore of Whitefish Lake.

Greater numbers of immigrants and non-immigrants could access remote regions. Eventually they would ride the rails through up to 27 stations. These were, Port Arthur, Fort William, Westfort, Twin City Junction, Slate River, Stanley, Harstone, Flint, Silver Creek, Murdock (Hymers), Sellars, Leeper, Nolalu, Hillside, Silver Mountain, Whitefish, Wolfe Siding (Suomi), Mackies, Round/Gravel Lake, Sand Lake (Sandstone), Iron Range, Addie Lake, North Lake, Leeblain, Gunflint, Round Lake (U.S.A.), and finally Gunflint/Paulson Mine. In 1915, all the rails west of North Lake were removed. In 1920, the writing was on the wall. In 1923, the railway abandoned the section of line between Round Lake and North Lake.

My father Walter (Valde) Hunnako (1906 – 1989) came from Finland by ship in December, 1928. Upon arrival in Saint John N.B., he then travelled by C P R train westbound through Montreal and north-west through Sudbury and into the Shield country through White River. Then along the north shore of Lake Superior through Nipigon and south-west to what is now Thunder Bay. He then took the Port Arthur, Duluth and Western Railway to the Whitefish Lake/Silver Mountain region where as an early settler he felled trees for pulpwood and lumber and cleared the fields of stumps and rocks for farming. My mother Mamie was never far, doing her part.

The depression thirties were not the time for more bad news. In 1937, unsustainable financial losses forced the railway to abandon more track from Mackie's Siding to Round Lake. In March 1938, Canadian National gave the order to halt all operations. Over the next year, work began in removing the now badly deteriorated rails. And even after the rails were lifted, for years to come, many along the PD line could still hear the fading clatter in the distance. Today, only the ribbon of bushed in railway right-of-way serves as a memorial to a time when train travel would open up the Great North-West. Only three km from where I live, the refurbished Silver Mountain Station still stands as a monument to this era.

This issue of Gateway Nolalu is drawn from my latest book, 'Piercing the Shield'.

Remember Fire Safety this summer, Urges Local Fire Service

Nolalu – June, 2018 - June is when many Ontarians get a jump on summer by opening their cottages and other seasonal homes. Nolalu Emergency Services Team is urging residents to add safety and prevention to their cottage plans.

“Cottages and other seasonal homes are vulnerable to unsafe conditions that can arise over the winter such as smoke and carbon monoxide alarms that no longer work, and chimneys that have become blocked,” said Chief Shoemaker. “Those travelling to cottages, cabins and seasonal homes should take new smoke and carbon monoxide alarms and batteries in case they need replacing when you arrive. We want everyone to enjoy the summer, and that includes staying safe.”

Other cottage fire safety tips include:

- Install smoke alarms on every storey and outside all sleeping areas of homes, cottages, cabins, trailers, RVs, and seasonal homes.
- Install carbon monoxide alarms outside all sleeping areas if your home, cottage, cabin, trailer, or RV has a fuel-burning appliance, fireplace or attached garage.
- Test smoke and carbon monoxide alarms at least monthly or each time you return to the cottage. Pack a new smoke and carbon monoxide alarm and extra batteries in case they need replacing.
- Develop and practice a home escape plan to ensure everyone knows what to do if the smoke or carbon monoxide alarm sounds.
- Know the telephone number for the local fire department and your cottage’s emergency sign number, in case of emergency.
- Clean barbecues before using them. Keep an eye on lit barbecues and ensure all combustibles, as well as children and pets, are kept well away from them. Fires can happen when barbecues are left unattended.
- Keep barbecue lighters and matches out of sight and reach of children.
- Remember to bring a flashlight with extra batteries.
- Inspect heating appliances and chimneys before using them.
- Check with your local fire department to determine whether open air burning is permitted before having a campfire or burning brush. Always keep a bucket of water or sand and a shovel close by and supervise the fire at all times.
- If you must smoke, do so outside. Keep a large can with water nearby so cigarette butts can be safely discarded.
- If you drink, do so responsibly. Tobacco use and excessive alcohol consumption are contributing factors in many fires and can lead to serious injuries.
- Burn candles in sturdy candleholders that will not tip and are covered with a glass shade. When you go out, blow out!

Community Spotlight: Support Needed

On May 5th Michelle Hickmans suffered a stroke. For those of you who don't know, Michelle is a member of our community and her partner, Thomas, was on the Nolalu fire department. Michelle is 30 years old and the mother of two small children. She is also a school bus driver. "To assist with Michelle's recovery and with caring for their children, Thomas has taken an indefinite leave from his work, as Michelle's recovery potential, and duration, is as of yet unknown."

A gofund me page has been created to ask the community for support. Please take a moment to visit www.helpmichelle.com to learn more about Michelle, her recovery and how you can help. "Donations will be contributing to any necessary physiotherapy, medical bills, safety equipment, travel, caregivers, etc. Any and every donation will make a huge difference for this family, and we all as a community are extremely appreciative of your consideration and generosity."

If you have already made a donation for Michelle's recovery and shared the link, thank you. If you are unable to donate at this time, please share the following link www.helpmichelle.com.
