I'm a first year in this college and by far my experience is pretty amazing. Faculty is always there for support and are friendly by nature. Also their study techniques are good, it's not just about those boring theories they teach us practically and help us. So far I'm enjoying studying here. I am student of INSD I get many opportunities and a great experience while doing the activities here it's the best Institute I have ever been all the teaching staff is too helpful even every query of student is solved I am lucky to be an INSD student

INSD is the best place where I learn very much things. Faculties are best. I have learned a lot creative and practical things and excited for further more because there is very comfortable atmosphere. Well qualified and trained staff and personal counseling is also there. We are so lucky to have part of this institute. Do come visits and start your journey

This place is very peacefull. This place is filled with positive vibes and warm people. If you are passionate about designing or want to do something unique in your career, you must join INSD Amravati, it's more than an Institute! It's a great destination to build your future with the design background. Nothing can be great than this
