At COCO PLUM PLACE we believe that health and happiness is a choice. This choice is at the very core of our mission. Every decision we make, product we carry, and meal that is prepared is meant to help enhance your health and happiness. It is also our belief that you cannot live a happy and healthy life if you are harming and polluting our environment, this is why COCO PLUM PLACE has chosen to use recyclable, sustainable, renewable, and environmentally friendly materials and ingredients whenever possible. The products we use and ingredients we choose cost more, are harder to find and take more time to prepare. We feel this is a choice and not a sacrifice. We humbly believe that by making this decision together we are serving a higher purpose to not only ourselves but also our community and our environment.
