

Release Date: August 15, 2022

IACT ANNOUNCES THE LAUNCHING OF ANCESTRAL HEALING TV

“Healing the Family Tree”

Seattle, WA – Today, the Institute of African Centered Thought (IACT) announced the launching of its Ancestral Healing TV Series on Patreon, Thursday, September 1, 2022. The AH Series will focus on healing the family trees of African Americans and individuals from all social classes who volunteer to share their stories of mental challenges and dysfunctions.

The AH Series will also offer private and non-private online Ancestral Healing Circles. The AH Circles provides insight on a subconscious level to those diagnosed with a mental disorder because of racial and generational trauma and how these emotional influences transfer from the DNA and Family Tree throughout generations.

IACT is committed to raising the conscious environment of African Americans to improve cultural understanding and communication through its platforms of online learning programs, conferences, seminars, debates, partnerships, and collaborations of like-minded organizations to improve the human condition.

For more information, press only:

Contact: Charmaine Givens

Website: www.iactnow0119.com