

GCSE History

Year 10 into 11 Summer work

Paper 2 – Kenilworth Castle

- As a part of your work on Kenilworth Castle we would like you to complete ONE of the essays on the following slide.
- Please bring this to your first history lesson so that we can give you feedback.
- The following slides will offer you some guidance too and don't forget the history blog and your knowledge organiser

http://tecchistoryks4.blogspot.com/2016/04/history-around-us-kenilworth-castle_6.html

2. What challenges are there when trying to understand the appearance of your site when it was first created and how could someone overcome these challenges? Use physical features of the site as well as your knowledge to support your answer.

[20]

3. Imagine that an artist has been hired to do a painting showing the diversity of everyday life at your site, at a particular time in its past. What would you tell the artist to help make the painting historically accurate? Use physical features of the site as well as your knowledge to support your answer.

[20]

() Spelling, punctuation and grammar and the use of specialist terminology [5]

Questions (20 marks)

Level 1 (1-4 marks)

- Assertions

Level 2 (5-8 marks)

- Identified or described point(s)
- Answers one part of the question

Level 3 (9-12 marks)

- One explained point

Level 4 (13-16 marks)

- Two explained points (no balance required)

Level 5 (17-20 marks)

- Three explained points (no balance required)

The only History paper with SPAG (Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar) marks

SPAG (5 marks)

- Most candidates achieve 3-4 marks
- 5 reserved for consistency especially with the use of specialist terminology
- Maximum of 2 for a short answer (less than a page)

Much more time for each question

Trickier questions

Time to check SPAG

Paper 3 Section A – The Making of America

- Our first topic back will be The Making of America
- Students can get an understanding of the topic by going on to the history department blog

<http://tecchistoryks4.blogspot.com/>

Good luck, and we look forward to welcoming our new GCSE cohort at the end of August!

The History Department.