Respected Sir,

On behalf of the entire community at Department of Civil Engineering, IIT Bombay, I would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude for delivering such an insightful guest lecture. We truly enjoyed the session and thoroughly appreciated you sharing your time and expertise with us.

Your talk on Value Engineering and its real-world applications across technology, materials, and historical case studies was exceptionally engaging and resonated strongly with all our attendees.

Thank you once again for your valuable time. We hope to have the honor of welcoming you back to Department of Civil Engineering, IIT Bombay in the near future.
