

Resumes for Children

Donna Kristine Manley

It's Never Too Early to Document Success!

Author: Donna Kristine "Kris" Manley
Format: 8.5 X 11 Paperback and downloadable ebook
Pages: 100
Price: $19.99
ISBN: 978-0-9777835-5-7

Media Experience

- Regional network television and radio shows across the United States, Canada, and overseas.
- Regional newspapers and magazines.
- On the web on numerous parenting websites, book review websites and mommy blogs.

Availability and Contact

Kris lives in the Atlanta area and is available to travel for interviews worldwide by arrangement, also via phone, remote technologies, or in the metro Atlanta area.

kris@resumesforchildren.com

<http://www.resumesforchildren.com>

<http://www.pinkseas.com>

Story Ideas

Do Your Children Need Resumes?
 Or Is It Too Much Too Soon?
 The answer will surprise you.

High School Graduation Doesn't Necessarily Mean Preparation.
 Forget the car, gift cards, new wardrobe, and a new computer. Learn why a resume is the most beneficial graduation present for your children.

When Does Your Children's Play Become A Future Career?

What Your Children Aren't Doing Now With Their Free Time Can Hurt Them For A Lifetime.

Kris Manley creates resumes for children. She calls this "Child Power on Paper!" Kris has been bringing out the best of her young clients for over 12 years.

Resumes for Children - 17 Years Old and Under is a Mom's Choice Award (R) Gold Recipient and received a "Best Parenting Book" badge by RadicalParenting.com. The book is a collection of resumes of children who developed their skills, abilities, gifts, and talents to obtain licenses, certifications and more. Kris believes that a child's resume is a great self-esteem booster and also a wonderful addition to each child's academic report card.