STARPEACE WORLD TOUR

STATEMENT

123 countries are together in Strawberryfields! Outside, some of the countries are at war with each other. In strawberryfields, those same countries are growing peacefully, side by side. This is a direct result of all of us dreaming together. That's why I wanted to come and thank you in person for being one of the millions of well-wishers around the world. Thank you for being you. You are beautiful. We have gone through some hard times together in the past five years, but we are together and that's what counts. As John said, "We can make it. We can make it together, we can make it together. That's all there is to it!"

Bless us all for sharing this time of incredible awareness and great hope. Bless us all for being on earth at the dawning of the age of wisdom and joy. May the gardens we grow give comfort to our offspring for many centuries to come. May this be the beginning of the century of peace — as dream you dream alone is only a dream, but you dream together is reality. I love you.

In Sisterhood & Brotherhood, Thank You

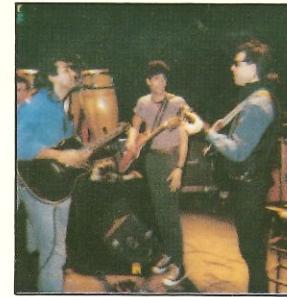

love,

Yoko

The Rehearsal.

Happy Valentine.

A Birthday Bash!

DEATH OF SAMANTHA

by Yoko Ono

People say I'm cool
Yeah, I'm a cool chick, baby
Everyday I thank God
I'm such a cool chick, baby

When I'm on the phone
I thank God
My voice sounds smooth and clear
Without a trace of tear
When I'm at work
I thank God
I still have that smile
My ma used to say
It lit her day

But something inside me
Something inside me
Died that day

People say I'm cool
Yeah, I'm a cool chick, baby
Everyday I thank God
I'm such a cool chick, baby

When I'm with people
I thank God
I can talk hip
When I'm crying inside
When I'm with friends
I thank God
I can light a cigarette
When I'm choking inside

CHORUS (Solo)

People say I'm cool
Yeah, I'm a cool chick, baby
Everyday I thank God
I'm such a cool chick, baby

A friend lent me shades
So I could hide my eyes that day
It was a snowy day and the shades have seen
A lot of things I didn't want to know myself

It was like an accident
Part of growing up, people tell me
But something inside me
Something inside me
Died that day

What do you doooo
What can you do
What do you doooo
What can you do

The world suddenly looks a strange place
People seem talking in foreign words
And something inside me
Something inside me
Died that day

What do you doooo
What can you do
What do you doooo
What can you do

WALKING ON THIN ICE

by Yoko Ono

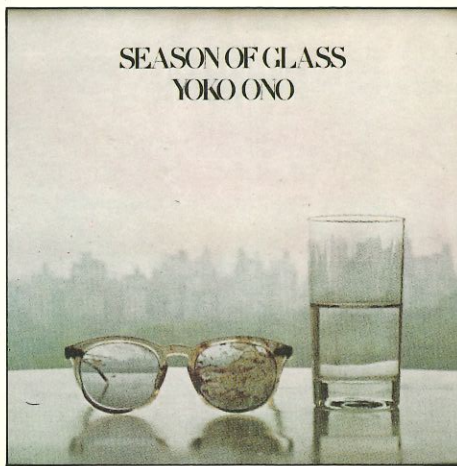

Walking on thin ice
I'm paying the price
For throwing the dice in the air
Why must we learn it the hard way And play the game of life with your heart

I gave you my knife
You gave me my life
Like a gush of wind in my hair
Why do we forget what's been said
And play the game of life with our hearts

I may cry some day
But the tears will dry whichever way
And when our hearts return to ashes
It'll be just a story
It'll be just a story

"I knew a girl
Who tried to walk across the lake
'Course it was winter and all this was ice
That's hell of a thing to do, you know
They say this lake is as big as the Ocean
I wonder if she knew about it?"

GOODBYE SADNESS

by Yoko Ono

Goodbye sadness
Goodbye goodbye
I don't need you anymore
I wet my pillow every night
But now I saw the light

Goodbye goodbye sadness
I don't need you anymore
Goodbye goodbye sadness
I can't take it anymore

Goodbye sadness
Goodbye goodbye
I don't need you anymore
I live in fear everyday
But now I'm going my way

Goodbye goodbye sadness
I don't need you anymore
Goodbye goodbye sadness
I can't take it anymore

Hellow happiness
Wherever you are
I hope you hear my song
I never want to cry again
Or hold my breath in fear again

Goodbye goodbye sadness
I don't need you anymore
Goodbye goodbye sadness
I can't take it anymore

NEVER SAY GOODBYE

by Yoko Ono

Never say goodbye
Never say goodbye
You say tomorrow's another day
All I know is we're here today

I've got nightmares I could never share with you
The kind that keeps me up all night
So hold me tight till the room is light
And tell me that it's alright

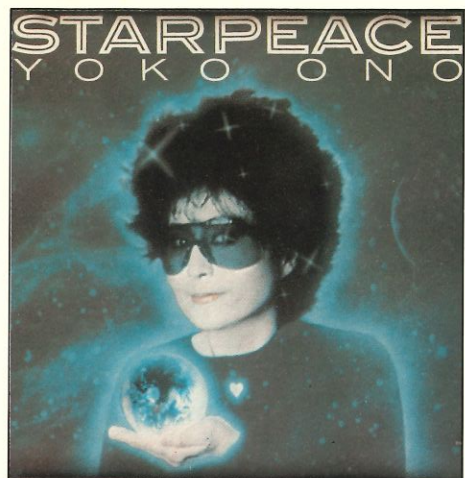

Never say goodbye
Never say goodbye
We may go our separate ways someday
But we know we shared our dreams today

I've got nightmares I would never wish on you
The kind that keeps me down all day
So hold me tight till the sky is light
And tell me that it's alright

Never say goodbye
Never say goodbye

HELL IN PARADISE

This is Hell in Paradise
We're all asleep or paralyzed
Why are we scared to verbalize
Our multicolor dreams

When will we come to realize
We're all stoned or passified
While the boogie men organize
Their multilevel schemes

Underqualified for love
Overqualified for life
Sticking our heads in slime Thinking we're in our prime

Mesmerized by mythology
Hypnotized by ideology
Antagonized by reality
Vandalized by insanity
Disensitized by fraternity
Sanitized by policy
Jeopardized by lunacy

Penalized by apathy
And living in the world of fantasy
Dancing on hot coal
Waiting for the last call
It's Adam's ball
Eve's call

Wake up, shake up, check out, work out, speak out, reach out, it's time to, time to, time to, to, to, to, to . . .

This is Hell in Paradise
None of us wish to recognize
But do we want them to materialize
An endangered species . . .

Exorcize institution
Exercise intuition
Mobilize transition
With inspiration for life

SKY PEOPLE

I stopped flying a long time ago Thinking that's just for the birds and the bees
But when I look up and see the sky
I like the blue and I know why

You come from Zeus, we come from Uranus
Hoping to meet soul to soul
We see you clearly with our third eye
There's no more fear and I know why

'Cause we're sky people that's what we are
Sky people that's what we are One day we'll fly and leap through the sky
To look for a good land hand in hand

(You know who sky people are They've got the blues in what they wear)

Calling Earth
Calling Earth
Who?
Are you listening?
Are you listening?
Is this a long distance call?
Mommy?
Oh, good you're on, too, stay on,
Sean
Don't be afraid
Don't be afraid
You sound familiar, you sound like me actually
That is because we conditioned our vibration to yours
Uhh, are you getting that, Sean?
You will not blow up Earth
You will not blow up Earth
That's good to know
You are wisdom, you are love

Human civilization is in a state of isolation
We'll learn to reach out for terrestrial communications
We'll make our first migration from earth to other constellations
Our life span will meet our life plan
Of Starpeace

Love is our energy source
Wisdom is our power source Health is our nature resource Growth is our future recourse
We'll join the State of the Universe
United State of Peace
We'll join the State of the Universe
United State of Peace
Starpeace, I see your growing Starpeace, I see you glowing Starpeace

I SEE RAINBOWS

By Yoko Ono

It's getting cold around here
People living in fear
Whether it's a country or an island
Frighten of death
Holding our breath
While our souls cry out

I don't wanna be mugged by some mother
I don't wanna be shot for ten dollar
What's this talk about limited holocaust Have a heart, I don't even want my roof to leak

I don't wanna be part of terrorists
I don't wanna be one of survivalists
This is our world and it's beautiful
I wanna survive survive survive together

I see rainbows
I see tomorrow
I see us sending rainbow love
I see rainbow
I see tomorrow
I see us sending rainbow thoughts

I see rainbows
I see tomorrow
I see us sending rainbow love
I see rainbows
I see tomorrow
I see us sending rainbow thoughts

DREAM LOVE

By Yoko Ono

Dream love
Dream universe
Dream come true
Dream power
Dream energy
Dream eternity

In dream you can fly forever and never miss a turn

In dream you can spread your wings and know where to turn.

Dream surprise
Dream sunset
Dream together
Dream you
Dream me
Dream each other

In dream the world is clear forever and,
there's no return
In dream you can love forever and
there's no return

Dream power
Dream reality
Dream together

IMAGINE

(by John Lennon)

Produced by JOHN & YOKO and PHIL SPECTOR
From the Capitol Records album IMAGINE (SW 3379)

Imagine there's no heaven
It's easy if you try
No hell below us
Above us only sky
Imagine all the people
Living for today . . .

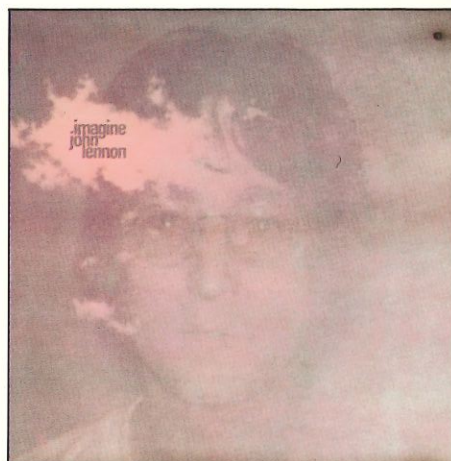

Imagine there's no countries

It isn't hard to do Nothing to kill or die for
And no religion too
Imagine all the people
Living life in peace . . .

Imagine no possessions
I wonder if you can
No need for greed or hunger
A brotherhood of man
Imagine all the people
Sharing all the world . . .

You may say I'm a dreamer
But I'm not the only one
I hope someday you'll join us
And the world will be as one

"It's about time to recognize that it's alright to be wearing different hats as our heartbeat is always one"
—Y.O. '83

"Sanity is allowing dichotomy. Unity is discovering empathy and harmony is a celebration of polarity."—Y.O. '83

"The past fifty years were a prelude to my life"—Y.O. '83

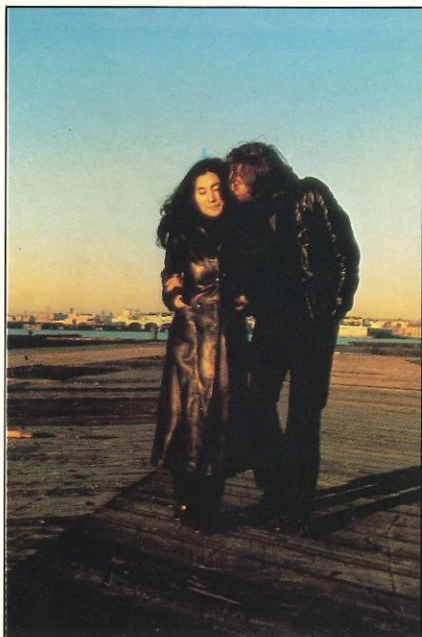

"A man came up to me and said
"May I shake hands with the hand that shook hands with John Lennon?" . . .
Shake my hand for what it's worth.
There is a wind that never dies"
—Y.O. '73

"It's never too late to start from the start"—Y.O. '72

"When I wrote that song, I was feeling the scarcity of love and warmth in my life. In fact, I was thinking of leaving New York, escaping, just Sean and me. Forgetting about political commitment, our efforts for peace. I thought, we've done enough in that direction. Now we have to be selfish and worry about our own survival. I looked at the map, trying to find a safe place to go, and I just had to laugh. Because, of course, there was none! So I had to own up. We can't just save ourselves, anymore. We're all in this together. So let's try to make this world a better place for all of us, the human race"—Y.O. '82

"In the evening I watched the city lights from my apartment that hangs in the air, and become overwhelmed by the incredibility of it all. Behind each shining dot, there is a room, an apartment, a person or people who are all having a life show of their own. Every person's life can be a book thicker than an encyclopedia and still you couldn't explain all that they took to survive. I would probably not meet even 1/1000th of those people. The odds of not meeting in this life are so great that every meeting is like a miracle"—Y.O. '73

IT HAPPENED

by Yoko Ono

It happened at a time of my life when I least expected
It happened at a time of my life when I
least expected
I don't even remember how it happened
I don't even remember the day it happened
But it happened
Yes, it happened
Ooh, it happened
And I know there's no return, no way

MIDSUMMER NEW YORK

—By Yoko Ono

woke up in the morning
my hands cold in fear
midsummer new york
my heart shakes in terror my heart, my hands
my legs, my mind everything i touch is

shaking, shaking,
shaking, shaking (aching)
shake . . shake . . shake . .
shake . . (ache)

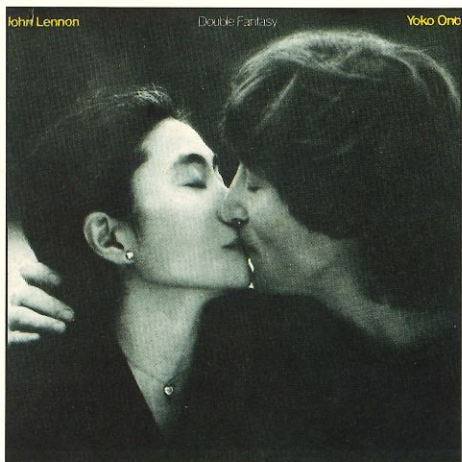

woke up in the morning
the bed's wet in sweat
midsummer new york
scream in the mirror
the door, the chairs, the floor, the ceiling everything you see is

shaking, shaking,
shaking, shaking (aching)
shake . . shake . . shake . .
shake . . (ache . . ache . . ache . .)

woke up in the morning
my mind's dried up in pain midsummer new york's waiting for the rain
the window, the trees, the park, the sun
the whole world's shaking

shaking, shaking,
shaking, shaking (aching)
shake . . shake . . shake . .
shake . . (ache . .)

KISS KISS KISS

By Yoko Ono

Kiss kiss kiss kiss me love
Just one kiss, kiss will do
Kiss kiss kiss kiss me love
Just one kiss, kiss will do

Why death
Why life
Warm hearts
Cold darts

Kiss kiss kiss kiss me love
I'm bleeding inside

It's a long, long story to tell
And I can only show you my hell

Touch touch touch touch me love
Just one touch, touch will do
Touch touch touch touch me love
Just one touch, touch will do

Why me
Why you
Broken mirror
White terror

Touch touch touch touch me love
I'm shaking inside

It's that faint faint sound of the childhood bell
Ringing in my soul

Kiss kiss kiss kiss me love
Just one kiss, kiss will do.
