

Grand Excursion Tour

GRAND EXCURSION - Explore the South Texas Coast!

Discover the diversity and beauty of Corpus Christi, Lamar, Fulton, and Rockport - four closely connected communities on the South Texas Gulf of Mexico. During this five-to-six-hour excursion which includes a stop for lunch and covers three South Texas counties, you will enjoy hearing and seeing the history of these colorful coastal towns.

There are many stops on this excursion, and there are so many opportunities to take pictures. We will see popular bayfront scenes, thriving marinas, cherished public art, colorful murals, historical sites, ruins, and the famous Windswept Oaks. On this unique excursion, you will see the strategic deep-water port in Corpus Christi; enjoy the tranquility of an amazing shrine on Aransas Bay; tour the Fulton Mansion in the seaport village of Fulton; and, wander at your leisure through an art gallery filled with spectacular art in downtown Rockport. There are football hero stories, railroad depots, water fountains, museums, and much more included on this Grand Excursion. You may have to extend your vacation when you see for yourself the array of amazing adventures that still await you - history, art, dining, fishing, birding, boating, and much more.

Our Grand Excursion and includes stops for photographs, spectacular views of scenic sites, shopping, and entry fee at the Fulton Mansion. There will be a stop for lunch in the Rockport-Fulton area. Food, beverage purchases, and gratuities are not included in the cost of the Grand Excursion.
