

Film competition

AddAMovie is now accepting short films

RULES & ELIGIBILITY

- AddAMovie is open to film makers of all ages and nationalities
- The movie must be between 1 and 45 minutes long
- The movie must be by or about Immigrants or Immigration
- The applicant must have a clearance for the movie to be screen at the AddAMovie film festival in December 15th 2018 at Gallery MC in NYC
- The director/producer is encouraged to attend the festival
- There is a $25 fee to submit the film
- Applicant can submit more than one film but need to pay separate fee for each entry

SUBMISSION PROCESS AND AWARDS

- Upload the movie VIMEO. Must include the password (if needed) and a download link (no Youtube or direct links please)
- Pay the $25 fee using PayPal and e-mail us the receipt at info@paracademia.org
- Send us an email at info@paracademia.org containing: PayPal receipt, your contact information, film credits (producer/director/composers), a written permission to screen the movie
- Submission deadline is December 1st
- A judging panel of AddAMovie staff and faculty will review the submissions and vote for up to 3 winners
- The results will be announced December 7th
There will be 3 awards given to the contestants:
1st prize: one-semester Film Scoring Workshop at Paracademia,
2nd prize: one-hour consultation with an award-winning film composer (TBA) 3rd prize: AddAMovie T-shirt

The panel reserves the rights to award fewer than 3 candidates.