real readers only!

SUMMARY

The book Cotton Candy Sally is about a horse named Sally who lives in Iowa but gets sent to NYC. Sally is sent to a school where you learn how to ride horses. But Sally is not a city horse, she is called mean things and people are scared of her. Except one girl named Kara who used to live on a farm but her dad sadly passed away after he got really sick. She is poor and can't afford much she lives with her mom and grandpa. Kara loves Sally but none of the other girls like Sally. Kara works at the riding school in the morning with the riding teacher Bernadette. But Sally might be sent away! Read the book to find out what happens to Sally!

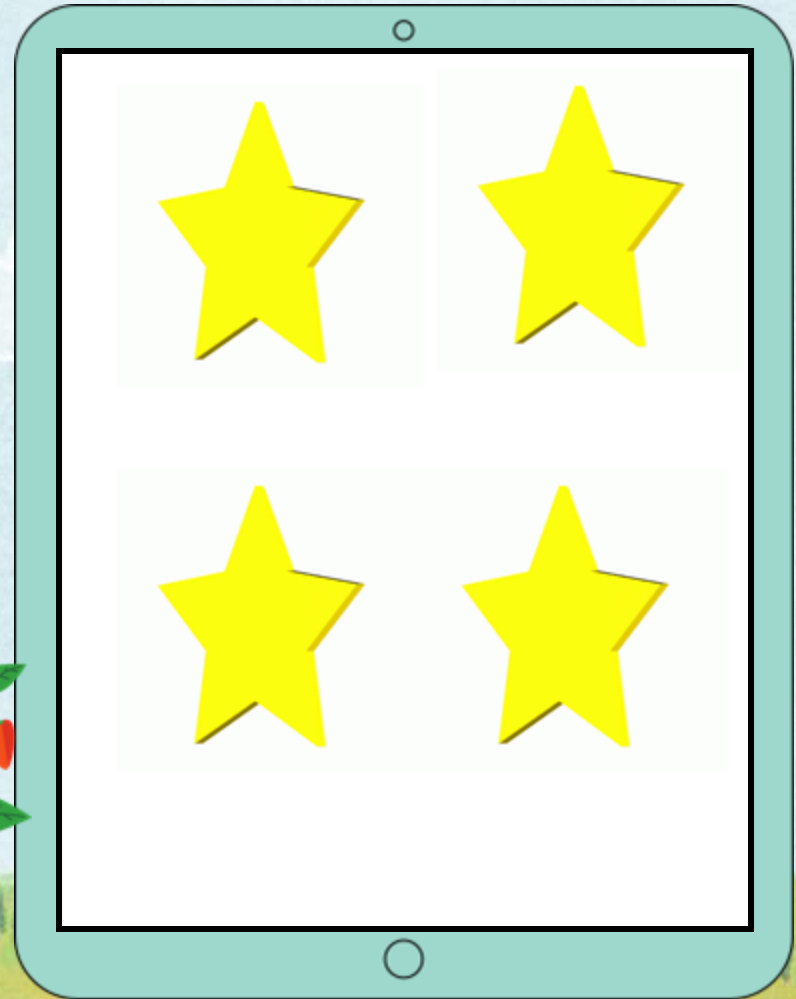

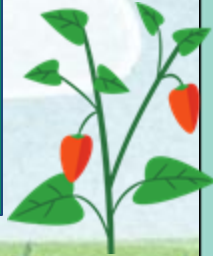

My ratings are...

4/4 stars

I rate this 4/4 stars because there are so many twists and turns and I really like how the characters act. They are detailed and the story is super realistic.

Lines from the book

- “Nobody wanted to ride her anymore.”
- “Sally stood like a soldier staring at the two of them.”
- “Suddenly, out of nowhere, Kara said “He died, you know. My dad.”
- “ Stupid horse, I don't have time for this!”
Dan growled”
