WHO AM I

Daniel Marshall Griffith hales from southeastern VA. Born into a Marine Corps family, he shares a great love for his country. Dan excelled in sports all through high school, playing Quarterback and Linebacker. He then walked on the Virginia Tech football team, where he lettered for three years and saw action in over 30 collegiate games.

Dan began to kindle his passion for music at the age of twelve, learning the basics of the piano. At 18, he picked up the guitar and taught himself a few chords, quickly igniting a passion to play country music. In 2021 Dan started to share his music on TikTok, where he caught the attention of American Idol, where he would go on to place in the top 14. Soon after the show ended Dan packed up and moved to Nashville to pursue his career in music.

His style is heavily influenced by early 2000s and late 90s country music and classic rock. His main musical influences are Garth Brooks, George Strait, Brooks & Dunn, Alan Jackson, Toby Keith, Willie Nelson, Randy Travis, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, and Eric Church
