Meadowpark Homeowner's Association
Amendment to Article 3.1.1 through 3.1.7
Fine and Appeals Procedure

In order to enforce the Declaration of Protective Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions, the Meadowpark Homeowner's Association ("Association") adopts the following Fine and Appeals Procedure for general enforcement upon the members of the Association. The authority to enforce this procedure is given to the Meadowpark Board of Directors ("the Board") according to Article 3.1 of the Bylaws of Meadowpark Homeowner's Association.

Section 1: Discretion of the Board
This policy shall serve as a guideline for the Board and the Owners, describing the means by which compliance with the Governing Documents will be pursued by the Association. The Board retains full and complete discretion to determine whether any violation identified by the Board, the Association or any Owner will be the subject of enforcement action, and the extent to which the Board and the Association may expend funds, issue orders, levy fines, or conduct hearings to seek compliance.

Section 2: Identifying a Possible Violation
A possible violation of the Declaration may be identified by a periodic inspection done to monitor compliance by Association and/or Board investigation, by an Owner's written complaint, or by other reasonable reliable means. The Association and/or Board may periodically monitor compliance by drive through inspections. If an inspection is conducted, a written record of each violation observed may be made. Assuming that the condition is a violation, and it is determined to be a material violation that justifies correction, and that no written approval by the Board for the condition has been issued, then a written Compliance Request will be sent to the Owner of the Lot where the violation has been observed.

Section 3: Written Complaint
Any person may bring a possible violation to the Board's attention through a written complaint. An Owner's written complaint can be delivered to the Board via U.S. First Class Mail or E-mail, and must contain return contact information. The complaint must identify the property and describe the violation. The Board may investigate, through a Board member or through an agent, to verify the violation exists. If the Board, based upon the investigation, determines that the condition is a violation and it is determined to be a material violation that justifies correction, and no written approval by the Board has been issued, a written compliance request will be sent to the Owner of the Lot where the violation has been observed.
Section 4: A 3 Step Approach for Violations
The Board shall use a three (3) step approach for processing violations that are not a health or safety hazard as outlined herein. For violations that constitute a health or safety hazard, as determined by the Board, the Board may impose the Fine described in Step 3 within seven (7) days of sending a written Compliance Request to the Owner of the Lot, where the safety or health hazard has been observed.

Step One: First written Compliance Request sent to Owner with 14 days to respond with a compliance date.
Step Two: Second written Compliance Request sent to Owner with 14 days to respond with a compliance date and a $100 fine.
Step Three: Third written Compliance Request sent to Owner with 14 days to respond with a compliance date and a $200 fine.

Every written Compliance Request sent to Owner thereafter will carry a $300 fine.

Section 5: Compliance Request
If a Compliance Request is sent to an Owner, it shall contain the following information:

A. The property's common address.
B. The nature of the violation.
C. A citation to the specific Covenant, Condition, Restriction, or Rule being violated (Step Two and Three only).
D. The amount of time the Owner has to cure the violation.
E. The manner in which the Owner can achieve compliance which will cure the violation.
F. The Fine to be imposed if the violation is not cured as described in the written Compliance Request.
G. A statement that the Compliance Request serves as a determination that the violation has occurred.
H. The determination is final unless a written appeal is sent to the Board within 24 hours of the next Board meeting (Step Two and Three).
I. If the Compliance Request is appealed in writing, the Owner has the right to a hearing before the Board to state their case (Step Two and Three).

Section 6: Paying a Fine Does Not Cure a Violation
Paying a fine does not relieve an Owner from the responsibility to cure a violation.
Section 7: Voluntary Compliance Agreement
The Board may reach a Voluntary Compliance Agreement with an Owner in which the Owner admits the violation exists, agrees to take specific action to cure the violation within a specific time frame, and agrees that failure to perform the specified actions within the specified time frame will entitle the Board to impose the fine or fines in a specified amount. When entering into a Voluntary Compliance Agreement, the Board may, in its discretion, modify or waive any portion of a fine that would otherwise be assessed to the Owner.

Section 8: Appeals
Owners may appeal any finding of a violation to the Board. Appeals must be submitted in writing to the Board within 24 hours before the next Board meeting. On an appeal, the decision of the Board is final. The Board will hold a hearing according to the following procedures:

a. The Owner shall include in their written appeal a narrative description of the basis for the appeal, including references to the provisions of the Governing Documents that support the Owner's position.

b. The Board will provide to the Owner written notice of the time, date, and location of the hearing.

c. The hearing shall be open to all Members of the Association, and Minutes shall be taken of the hearing.

d. The Board may confer privately, and shall make their decision. They may elect to notify the Owner orally, but must provide a written notice of the decision, and it must be sent to the appealing Owner within 14 days following the hearing. An Owner not notified within 14 days, will automatically win their appeal.

e. The Board can not fine an Owner for the same offence if they win an appeal. This would constitute “Double Jeopardy”.

Section 10: Board's Discretion to Impose or Waive Fines and Enforcement
The Board may modify, impose, or waive a fine, seek relief in court, or elect not to seek such relief, according to the Board's discretion.

Section 11: Hold Harmless for Board members
Persons exercising authority of the Board are not liable for action or inaction related to the enforcement of the Governing Documents of the Meadowpark Homeowner's Association.
The provisions herein shall be effective on April 1, 2008.

ARTICLE 3.13.1 Powers and Duties of the ACC

3.13.1.2 RENTAL RULES & REGULATIONS
REGARDING RENTAL OF HOMES/TENANTS

The Board of Directors discussed the special issues posed by tenants/non-owners residing in the community, regarding their knowledge of and compliance with the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (the “Covenants”). Experience and investigation has led to the conclusion that many owners, and realtors as property managers, are not providing copies of the Association’s governing documents to prospective and actual tenants or even informing them they exist. This causes confusion and inadvertent non-compliance by tenants, and problems for the Association that might be easily avoided. Furthermore, some owners do not inform the Association they are renting out their house(s), or do not provide the Association any information about their tenants, so the Association experiences difficulty in communicating with owner and/or the tenant about Association questions or issues.

In the interest of ensuring the Association has adequate information with which to communicate with owners and their tenants about Association issues, and to enhance the Association’s ability to communicate regarding occupant’s/tenant’s compliance with the provisions of governing documents, the following Rules & Regulations are adopted regarding owners who rent out their homes, and their tenants.

RULES

All owners who rent or who are considering renting their home are subject to these Rules & Regulations, including when the owner rents to a family member.

1. OWNER TO PROVIDE GOVERNING DOCUMENTS TO TENANT.
At or before the time a lease/rental agreement is signed between owner and a tenant or tenants, owner or owner’s agent will provide a copy of the “CC & r Summary” to the tenant, urging tenant to read them. Copies of the governing documents may be obtained online at: www.meadowparkhomeownersassociation.com. (click on Rental Pack ) to download and print all required documents) We will provide copies free of charged if you request them in writing

2. REQUESTED LEASE/RENTAL AGREEMENT PROVISIONS.
All lease/rental agreements should be in writing. An owner/member intending to rent out their home should specifically include:
(a) tenant acknowledges being made aware of the CC & R requirements of Meadowpark
(b) tenant understands and acknowledges that tenant is fully subject to the governing documents and must comply with them in all respects; and
(c) if tenant fails to comply with any provisions of the governing documents it will be considered a material breach or default of the lease/rental agreement, and be reason for eviction. In the course of leasing/renting a home to a tenant, owner or owners’ agent should inform tenant that these provisions are contained in the lease agreement.
3. OWNER OR OWNERS WILL PROVIDE TENANT INFORMATION TO THE HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION.

After a lease/rental agreement is signed, owner(s) or owner’s property management agent will provide to the Association in writing:
(a) owner’s correct residence address, home phone number, email address if applicable;
(b) a signed copy of “CC& R acknowledgement document
(c) the name of every tenant signing the lease agreement;
(d) the home phone number of every tenant signing the lease agreement; and
(e) if consented to by tenant, tenant’s email address.

Landlord & Tenant Contact Form and CC& R acknowledgement document are provided in “Rental Pack” page on our website or by written request.

4. LEASE/RENTAL AGREEMENTS

All owners with existing lease/rental agreements should comply with these Rules and provide this information to the Association within twenty (30) days from the date these Rules are mailed to them.

5. EVICTION OF TENANT FOR REPEATED NON-COMPLIANCE.

In the case of repeated, uncured violations of the governing documents by a tenant, where the Association has mailed notices of violation and request for compliance through the use of our “Fine and Appeals Procedure”, and the tenant and owner have refused or otherwise failed to comply, the owner/member, upon written notice and request from the Association, should commence an eviction proceeding against the tenant and prosecute it to completion and eviction of that tenant.

This RENTAL RULES & REGULATIONS is officially adopted by the Board of Directors for and on behalf of the Association becomes effective November 1, 2009.

3.14 Action by Directors Without a Meeting – Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all the directors or such committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors of such committee, as the case may be.

3.15 Telephonic Meeting – Any one or more members of the Board of directors or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participating by such means shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.
3.16 Presumption of Assent – A director of the Corporation present at a Board of Directors meeting at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action unless said director’s dissent is entered into the minutes of the meeting or unless a written dissent to such action is filed with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or unless said director forwards such dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the Corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. A director who voted in favor of such action may not dissent.
