

Deadly Digi Yarns:

Cairns West Way

This is a hands on program for people who want to tell their own deadly yarns.

Learn how you can create short films to tell the stories that are important to you.

Work with digital storytellers to develop your ideas, film and edit them to create a finished product to share with the world.

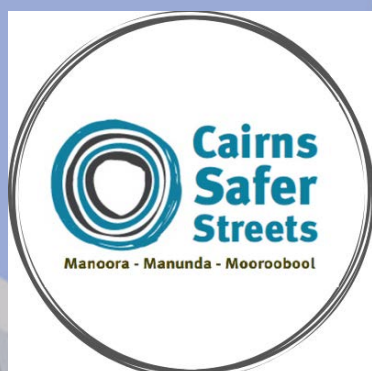

Where:	Mooroobool Hub, 2 Long Street Mooroobool
Who:	Indigenous young people aged 12 - 25 years old
How many:	12 people max.
What:	5 day workshop
When:	Monday 18 - Friday, 22 January 2021
Time:	10am - 4pm each day
Cost:	Free

There will be a meet and greet BBQ on the Sunday prior (17 January) at the Mooroobool Hub for participants and their families to hear about the week ahead, timings will be advised once participants have been confirmed.

A healthy lunch and snack will be provided each day. All equipment will be provided.

Signing up requires you to attend the full 5 day program.

Kylie Young on 0472 838 388 or
Marc Harbrow on 0459 892 262

Digital Storytellers

Queensland
Family & Child
Commission

