CUSTOMERS FIRST

Cairns Safer Streets member Andrew Jamieson efforts for going above and beyond were recently acknowledged.

Andrew was the 2020 receipt of the Recognition of Excellence Award for 'Customers First'. This was an outstanding achievement, was no mean feat being a state award. Cairns Safer Streets team were all on hand for the presentation, in which Andrew was presented this prestigious Award from Acting Director-General Andrew Sly. Keep up the great work.

TAGGIN' TO STARDOME

Phoenix Onespeed featured two of our deadly Recruits Aiden Nona (left - kneeling) and Petrus Siwi (fluoro hat) won the mixed A-Grade Oztog grand final. Both Aiden and Petrus originally participated in our 'Taggin in the Streets' program at Shang Park both young persons showed interest in Oztog. Parks to Clubs provided the players the opportunity to play at a club level and be mentored by players such as former NQ Cowboys Player Javid Bowen and Australian Indigenous Players Darren Cobb and Evie Evernden.

DANCING LULLABY

JUTE's Lullaby final rehearsal was held for the official performance on the 8th September at Bulmba-Ja Indigenous Arts Centre. The production combined three culturally diverse stories, that are recited or sung to their children by parents/grandparents and will be performed in 3 languages. Participants developed performance skills in movement art and had the opportunity to listen and learn the words used for babies/children of each other's culture. The participants represented 7 diverse cultural groups including those from the JUTE ensemble.
