HOW ^{you} can HELP

Hands Across the Pacific (H.A.P.) is a registered 501c3 Christian mission organization committed to bringing the love of Christ to the least of these in Cambodia. We partner with local churches and leaders to provide practical and spiritual support to widows, orphans, and communities in need. H.A.P. is run by volunteers who do not take salaries; your donations go directly to helping Cambodian families and reaching them with the gospel. To donate, go to handsacrossthepacific.com and click the DONATE tab. Or you may write a check to Hands Across the Pacific and send it to:

Miracle in the Cambodian Countryside

In the remote countryside of Cambodia, a young girl named Sok Chan lived a life filled with hardship. Suffering from a terrible skin condition that caused her immense pain and discomfort, Sok Chan's days were overshadowed by her illness. Despite the efforts of her family and the limited medical resources available in the village, her condition worsened with time.

One day, a group of Cambodian Christians from Pastor Sina's churches visited Sok Chan's village. They were moved by Sok Chan's plight and decided to pray for her healing. Filled with compassion and a deep faith in Jesus Christ, they gathered around Sok Chan and lifted their voices in prayer, calling on the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, the ultimate healer and source of all life.

The villagers watched as the Christians prayed fervently for Sok Chan's healing for three days. On the third day, in a moment that seemed to defy all logic and medical explanation, a miraculous transformation began to take place. Sok Chan felt a warmth spreading through her body, and to her amazement, she saw her skin condition slowly disappearing before her eyes.

Tears of joy streamed down Sok Chan's face as she realized that she had been healed by the power and the grace of God. The villagers who witnessed the incredible miracle that had taken place in their midst rejoiced with her. Sok Chan's story spread like wildfire throughout the countryside, inspiring hope and faith in the hearts of all who heard.

From that day on, Sok Chan's life was forever changed. She went from being a girl plagued by illness and despair to a living testament of God's miraculous healing power. The Cambodian Christians who had prayed for her continue to visit the village, sharing the good news of Jesus Christ and bringing hope to those in need.

Sok Chan's healing serves as a powerful reminder of the transformative power faith, God's love and the power of the name of Jesus Christ! It's a story of hope, redemption, and the enduring belief that miracles can happen, even in the farthest corners of the world. ✝

Caring for Orphans... James 1:27

Every day 50-year-old Pastor Deam Vat and his wife Soun Ney ensure that the 16 orphaned children under their care are not just safe and fed, but cherished and nurtured. In their modest home, these children find more than shelter; they find a family who believes in their potential and invests in their future.

The pastor, his wife, and the children live in a small village in Kompong Chhnang province. The reality is stark: resources are scarce, and the needs are great. Many of the children arrive with nothing but the clothes on their backs. Pastor Deam Vat and Soun Ney cannot do this alone. Your generosity has already made a difference, providing essentials that are vital to their well-being, like rice and clothing.

Would you consider sending a special gift marked for "orphans" today? Your support is crucial in sustaining this essential work. Together, we can ensure that Pastor Deam Vat's home and Hands Across the Pacific continue to be a beacon of hope and a refuge for those in need.

Thank you for your continued compassion and generosity. Your contributions truly make a difference in the lives of these children. ✝
