

“Animals are our Teacher. Nature is our Mother Earth.”

Deborah and Angelina O' Willow, Deaf, Founders of Fauna Flora Sanctuary Farm since 1999. This year in the gorgeous upstate of New York, they aim to open their little beloved sanctuary farm to the community. They are committed to raising awareness and accountability for Mother Earth and the welfare of all living beings.

VISION:

Fauna Flora Sanctuary Farm envisions a peaceful world of respect and justice for all living beings.

MISSION:

We rescue and provide animals with lifelong sanctuary and give them love.

By allowing animals to live with dignity and sharing their stories, we advocate for animal rights in alliance with the social justice movement and aim to reduce suffering for all.

ACTION PLAN:

Provide safe forever homes for rescued animals.

Protect our animals and the earth.

Educate humanity, dignity, love, and respect for animals and the planet!

Offer an opportunity to reconnect with nature!

Engage diverse communities through:

~Volunteering ~ Doing Internship ~ Joining or hosting Retreats ~ Leading ASL literacy for deaf, deafblind, and hard-of-hearing children and families!
