

You're with friends when they start teasing an unpopular kid, taking his things and calling him names. If you stick up for him, the group could turn on you. What will you do?

You're playing with your younger sister. She has a toy you want to play with. You could just take the toy if you wanted to and replace it with another one. She would not notice or cry, but she seems to really like the toy. You could switch it with the toy you have.
No one is looking now. What will you do?

You're playing with two good friends. They both want to be your best friend. You think you like one friend better.
That friend says, "Let's go play by ourselves." You know your other friend's feelings will be hurt if she's left out.
What will you do?

You're playing catch in the house and break your mom's favorite table decoration. Your mom hears the crash and comes running to see what happened. If you tell the truth, you know you will be punished. You could say you accidentally bumped the table.
What will you do?
