

The More the Merrier

Dom is away this week and he left it up to me to do this write-up. I know that I will not compare to what he writes, but I will try.

This was another big week for ticking off those runs. 49 boxes got closed off. This includes 7 teams hitting 10 runs. 4 times 11 runs was hit, and only once for 12 runs.

Those runs helped quite a few contestants climb the ladder to get closer to the final win. Last week we only had 4 contestants in the lead with 9 wins and this week we have 11 contestants with 10 wins.

Our big jumpers covering 4 numbers this week were Bob Higgins with the D'Backs, Dan Hofstein with the Oakland A's, and Mike Banha with the Rays. Unfortunately, 5 players didn't have any luck this past week hitting any numbers.

I'm sure next week's recap will be much better when Dom returns.

See you next week!
