

THIS AND THAT

There's not a lot to report from last week. So we'll just talk this and that.

Only six numbers were hit all week. No team got more than 1.

Every team has checked off at least 10 numbers.

The number 6 got closed out last week. All numbers 1-7 are now worthless. That makes it a lot easier for me to go through the scores every morning. The zero and 8 may be gone before it's over too.

There is now a four way tie at the top. With 14 teams just 1 off the pace.

The Dodgers got to that 1 Away Club by scoring 9 runs on Saturday for Arnie Komet.

The Phils made it to 1 Away with a 12 spot on Saturday. Happy Days for Chris Reed. He and Arnie both need the difficult 13 so nobody's booking a trip to Costa Rica quite yet.

Looks like the pool will make it to July, I don't think it did last year. Stay cool, talk soon.
