

OUT OF NOTHING AT ALL

Only 4 needed numbers were hit the entire week. None gave us winner. I know what you're thinking. How's Dom gonna come up with more than a two sentence recap, out of nothing at all. . .

Well I know just how to fake it, and I know just how to lie, so I know I gotta give it a try.

Funny game in Vegas on Monday — yes, Vegas! I don't know the dims on the stadium, but the A's played the Brewers and both teams went over the 13 run mark. 'Ya don't see that every day!!

The Dodgers gave us a scare on Tuesday, had 12 runs through 7 innings with two at bats to go, 1 more run needed to bring Arnie Konet home a winner. Alas - 'twas not to be.

The Giants picked up their 13th number Wednesday to get into the bloated One Away Club. Teresa Kelly gets a mention for the first time and probably didn't expect to be in this spot, as the Giants were expected to be horrible this season and they haven't disappointed, but she's in the mix. Needs the Big Number.

The Cubs joined the party on Thursday, picking up their 13th number, giving hope to Dan Hofstein. They need the 13 too so he's holding off on booking that Aruba vacation for now, but the Cubs are a dangerous team.

The wildest game came on Sunday. The A's nailed a needed number scoring 9 runs, which would be nice, except they lost the game. . . by 14 runs!!!!

OK - no more hoops, hockey is done, the only major sport (sorry soccer fans) in play for a while is Baseball. Let's have some excitement this week and crown a pool champion.
