CODE OF CONDUCT

Here do I pledge in word, deed, and thought to honour the Code of Chivalry.

I will act in HOPE by being a beacon of light and chivalry.

I will act with LOVE and KINDNESS by treating everyone with respect and honour.

I will act with FAITH and TEMPERANCE by modeling good manners and behavior.

I will act with PRUDENCE by being diligent in my tasks and responsibilities.

I will act with FORTITUDE by honouring the directions given to me by the Arizona Medieval Games leadership, honourable delegates, and esteemed members of the Court.

So swear I

THE CHARGE

Alum knights & gentry must strive to work well with all fellow volunteers and be supportive of each other.

Alum knights & gentry must be dressed in costume from Wednesday at 2:00pm through Saturday at 11:00am. Knights and gentry are expected to dress appropriately for the cold mornings and evenings. Layers are essential!

Tasks will include food serving, field support, kitchen work, set up/break down support, refilling water coolers, etc.

Alum knights & gentry must work a minimum of 8 hours/full day. Alum knights & gentry will sign up for shifts. During the shift they are at work or at the Knights' Watch station waiting for another task.

Alum knights & gentry may spend off hours at the knights' dining table, at the artisan guild, or in their quarters.

Alum knights & gentry may not have guests in their quarters.

Curfew is from 10:00pm – 7:00am. During the curfew hours, alum knights and gentry must be with their chaperones unless on a special assignment.

At the discretion of their parent/chaperone, alum knights and gentry may carry a cell phone. Cell phones must be out of sight of the squires.

Alcohol, drugs, smoking, vaping, aggression, bullying, and any sexual conduct are strictly prohibited.

THE AGREEMENT

I agree that....

- My purpose at the Games is to work and support the event.
- I will abide by the Code of Conduct and Charge.
- I am part of the Medieval Games community and I understand that this is a valuable experience.
- I will behave in a knightly manner at all times so that I am a good role model to all.
- I will abide by the directions of the Knights' Watch volunteers, members of the Arizona Medieval Games Leadership (Dame Heidrun, Dame Colleen, King Gaetano, Sir Joseph), members of the Court, and my parent/chaperone.
- Any breach of this agreement will result in a response ranging from a conference to dismissal from the Games.
