Show Update

Registration Update

We have sold 41 display spaces to date with 36 exhibitors (2 are marketplace only) – 3 new within the past week

Total $1,025 in registrations to date vs. $800 total last year (30 exhibitors)

We still have room for a few more table spaces if any more registrations come in.

Set Up Update

Thursday, October 28 - 3:00 pm - Meet Daniela at the lower level of the clubhouse to pick up tables - 11 eight-foot tables and 13 six-foot tables

(All other tables are in various locations in the community center)

Drop tables at the community center in room 1 after pick up

Friday, October 29 - set up - Move tables needed from community center rooms and storage to Marion Pronk Hall. We will need to keep track of how many tables we get from each location to assure we get things back where they belong

Sunday, October 30 - 4 pm - Tables to be returned to clubhouse stacked in room 2 11 eight-foot tables and 13 six-foot tables to be returned to clubhouse, making sure tables borrowed from that room remain separate

Monday, October 31 - 10 am - Move tables from room 2 back to the lower level of the clubhouse (must have tables out of room 2 before 11 am)

School Art Work

School is providing display – Jen and Diane will organize pick up on that.

Cashier and Data Entry Training – Joe will train after the meeting today and will do additional training if needed after the equipment is set up on Friday – 10.28

Artist Reception – Jen – Friday 28th , 6-8 pm, patrons invited along with exhibitors and members. We have a liquor license. Looking for donations of bottles of wine and circulated a signup list. Licata group, Lake authors and Food Lion have given donations. Others are pending.

Raffle Projects

Next raffle sale at Clubhouse 10.7 – if you have volunteered Sigrid will send a reminder
First netted $151

Currently have: Big basket, Pickleball basket, Pete Brown painting, Catherine Hillis framed print and Rick Rappoport's cutting board for the raffle.

Collaborative Projects

It was decided we had too many for the silent auction and plenty of other items for raffle.

We will keep 3 in the silent auction, so we are not competing against ourselves – one fabric hanging, one circle collaborative, and the koi fishbowl that Joe and Lisa did.

The additional pieces that you all so generously helped produced will be priced and hung at Fareways in November. The sale from these items will be at 100% commission so your hard work will still benefit the club.

Many thanks to everyone who contributed to these projects:

Fabric hangings:

The Blues (Silent auction) - Gaylen, Peggy Shull, Lisa, Karen W., and Karen F.

Bountiful Blooms (Fareways) BJ Elvgren, Daria Bessom, Ellen Raguetta, Sigrid, and

Christy

Whimsical Fun (Fareways) Peggy Pope, Maribeth Logan, Nan Lamb, Elena Pratt,

Bill Mann

Circle Collaborative:

Black (Silent auction) – Eve, Karen O., Karen F., Dee Knapp, Lisa (from pours), Linda Kadar, Jill

Green (Fareways) – Janice, Lisa, Karen W. Eve, Christy, Bill Mann

Several other were donated, that just couldn't be used with the others – some will make their way to the market table for sale and 100% commission.

Card – fundraisers, 10 artists, 10 cards selling as a group. Several of our SEC members attended a card assembly event at Maribeths – will sort into groups of 5-6 to sell at the market table with 100% commission to go to Arts.

Publicity Report – Lisa Spencer-Ballard

Big push is in October – to get people into the show – ad

Hold the date to patrons list going out this week and initial invite to reception

SEC Report – Sigrid

Fareways update – November 9th exhibit will swap out – reception November 20th

This show already exceeded the first in income.

September 21st – first Plein Air – 7-8 people, some painting, some not

November – show debrief

December – library display case – Maribeth Logan – will do gifts for Mommy and Daddy with Maribeth coordinating – will discuss further at SEC Meeting

Treasurer's Report

Current Balance $1,131.58

Origami Boxes with Sigrid

Data Entry and Cashier training with Joe.

Next meeting – Monday, November 7, 2022
