Marilyn Davis recommends the show, "Self Portrait with Bandaged Ear by Vincent Van Gogh," episode 2 of Brushstrokes: Every Picture Tells a Story. You will hear the story of this famous work revealing the extent of the artist's personal demons and the profound effect this had on his work. See it on Amazon Prime.

Allita Irby recommends the National Gallery of Art Newsletter. Even if you are unable to attend the events, there is always something to spark your interest. Sign up here.

Karen Falcon recommends The Goering Catalog on Amazon Prime, the story of Goering's catalog of art stolen by the Nazis.

Please tell us if there is something "artsy" you recommend!

Artist Turns Plastic Bags Into Art

Did you know LOW Arts member Allita Irby was interviewed by VOA (Voice of America)? A short video was created highlighting Allita's use of plastic bags to create art. Congratulations to Karen O'Donnell! Her piece, Dreamscape (left), won first place at FCCA's all photography show! Karen created this work by photographing a small portion of Peggy Shull's original photo (Spring) through a piece of glass with a macro lens. A photo box was used to control the light so there weren't reflection issues from the glass.

Congratulations also to Peggy Shull who has artworks on display, and for sale, at the dental office of Dr Lloyd Moss, Princess Anne Street in Fredericksburg

Christy Rappoport and Karen O'Donnell have art accepted into "Purple, A National Juried Show" at LibertyTown Arts. Left: Christy's Purple Haze. Right: Karen's The Market. On display until Sunday March 2, 2025 at LibertyTown Arts, 916 Liberty Street Fredericksburg.

Art is meant to be shared! There is a thriving art community both within Lake of the Woods and outside our gates. These local galleries not only display the work of their artists but sponsor exhibits that are open for you to participate in. Take that step! Share your art! They want to display (and possibly sell) your work! You will find all the details you need about each show on their website. Click on the graphic to connect.
