Critique – pieces brought in by Bill Mann, Karen Weingartner, and Gary Close.

Mosaic Mural pieces were brought in for display. They are just beginning to put it together and we shared the site pictures.

Welcome – Karen Falcon

Good news – thanks from the ladies' golf association for our donations to Saint Jude's – they raised over $40k at the event.

Sigrd sold 3 pictures at Art at the Mill and had an additional sale from her website through that show.

Praise for members who are also accomplished golfers: Christine Funk and Jane Neubig

Nominating Committee – Jen Heinz

Jen reports we have a full slate – Karen O, pres; Jim Funk, vp; Daria Bessom, secretary; Eve DeVito, treasurer; Jill Iglehart & Dee Knapp, SEC co-chairs; Publicity will be a joint effort between Toni Maltagliati, Lisa Spencer-Ballard and Jen Heinz – details to be determined.

November Art Show

- Just a little over a month away
- Registration ends October 15 or when we are filled
- As of right now 49 artists are represented

- One "A" side is available
  - Need one black cover to make 2 sides of a "B" available – does anyone want to sew one? – Aura has volunteered so we also have 2 "B" available
  - Probably only a couple more table spaces left – it's starting to get crowded
  - Raffle sales start on Thursday at Clubhouse
  - Need more volunteers – sign-up sheet going around
  - Giving Table – call Sigrid if you have donations – please donate by the end of October
  - People coming from outside the lake just need to say they are coming in for the art show – Pete Brown makes that request of management and security
  - Allita says the save the date cards are very helpful

Intro of two artists

- Pete Brown – he's been drawing since the 4th grade, life got in the way until he turned 60 and his career changed, then he started painting and is painting every day now. He encourages everyone to keep up with their art and enjoy it. He paints in oils and acrylics and is not a fan of watercolor.
- Bill Mann – painted in high school and college, stopped for 40 years and then got back into it. He enjoys donating his work and is starting to work on religious and Christmas-themed art which we will see at the show.

Treasurer report

- Starting balance $5,526
- Income - $1327 from the show and the rest from Fareways commissions, and 3 new members
- Expenses - $292
- Balance $6,561

SEC – Fareways exhibit

- $1,017 in sales so far in this current exhibit
- No other SEC events. As we approach the end of the year, its all about the show.

Publicity – Lisa Spencer-Ballard

- Publicity is all about the show
  - Sneak peek on FB
  - Get those pictures of your work in

Art Trivia game

- Karen Falcon put together 67 questions about famous artists and our local artists to see how much we know about art and our members. Jen Heinz had the most right answers and took home a prize.
