OVERVIEW

Gretchen Jacobs, Founder & President of Arizona Governmental Affairs, works with the Governor’s Office, Legislature and state agencies on issues of policy, appropriations and government marketing at the Arizona Capitol.

Prior to establishing her practice in governmental affairs, Gretchen represented corporate clients in civil court as an attorney and remains an active member of the Arizona and California Bar Associations. Since entering the political arena in 1998, she has earned a reputation as one of the hardest working and “most effective” lobbyists in Arizona as noted in numerous publications including the Phoenix Business Journal and Arizona Republic. She has earned the title of “Best Female Lobbyist” by the Arizona Capitol Times.

Gretchen’s clients rely on her practice of working with legislators from both sides of the aisle on technical and often controversial legislative bills, helpful to her clients and the community. She has excellent relationships with legislative leadership and knows from first-hand experience how to successfully assist clients through legislative terrain.
