

Once upon a time there was a princess named Sophia. Sophia loved the beach one special morning while she was walking at the beach she found a magical unicorn. When the unicorn saw Sophia it got scared and ran away. When it saw that Sophia wasn't doing anything it stepped closer to her and closer and closer until it was close inuf for Sophia to tuch it. When Sophia tuched it it's horn started to glow bright gold. Then Sophia noticed that the unicorn had gold stars on it's back leg and it's main and tail were rainbow. It's hooves glowed bright shimery gold. It had pretty white fur and blue eyes. Sophia named the unicorn wild star. Then wildstar started to make trash disappear. The next day Sophia and wildstar met ichother at the beach. Then they worked together to make trash from the beach disappear.