

Once upon a time a little girl named Leo. She went to the beach at night. Leo saw dolphins and whales. They were stuck in the trash. Leo decided to help pick all the trash up. As she was picking it up, she discovered a turtle at the bottom of the pile in the sand. It was a baby sea turtle! Gently Leo picked up the sea turtle and put her in the ocean. Leosary continued to take care of the beach. As a thank you, the dolphin had to dive down deep into the Ocean to find a shiny diamond. Leo said thank thank you, but I don't need a diamond. Leosary made a sign to tell everyone who goes to the beach to pick up their trash. She went happy in her heart that she helped!
