Secret
Nobody can see

One time, a cat named Fish-Breath went to the beach to find LAND OF PUGS to attack them with her fish breath just because she felt like it.

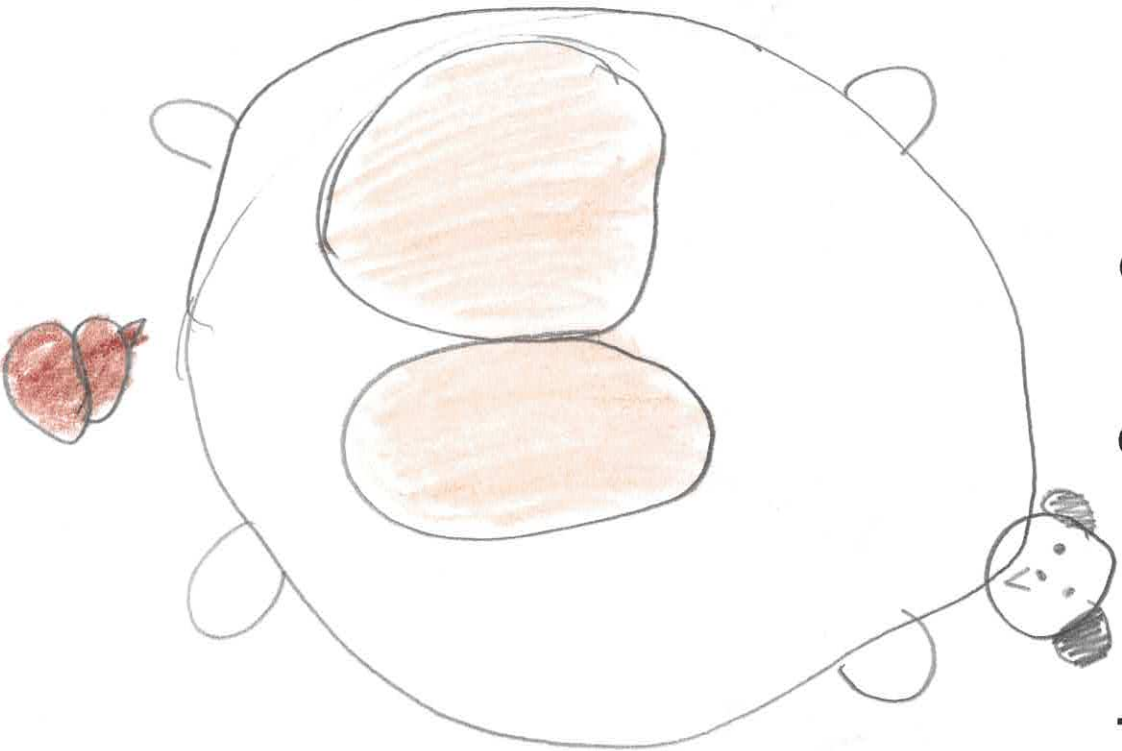

But what she didn't know, was that the pugs were planning on attacking her too!

So Fish-Breath gathered an army of cats.

And the pugs were getting their super sized butts ready.

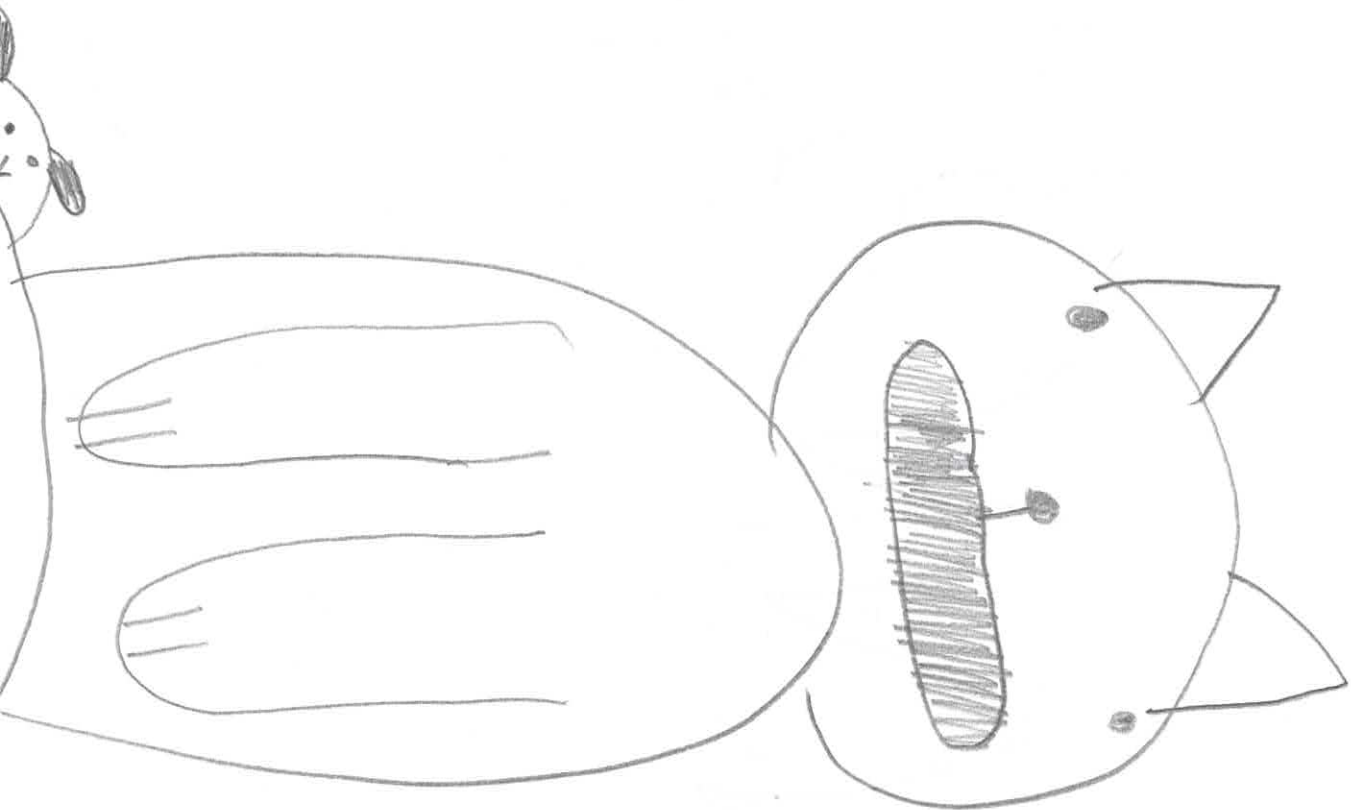

Then the battle begun...

ass

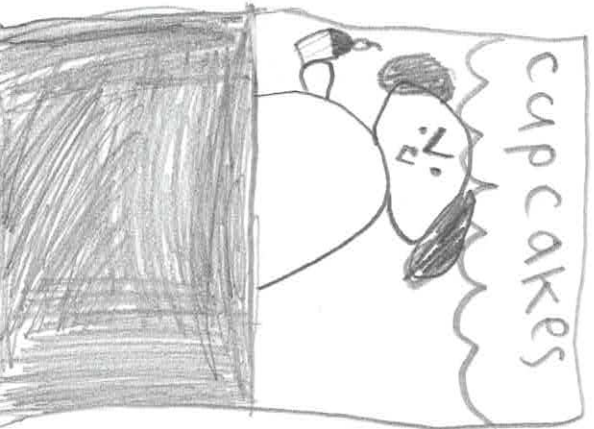

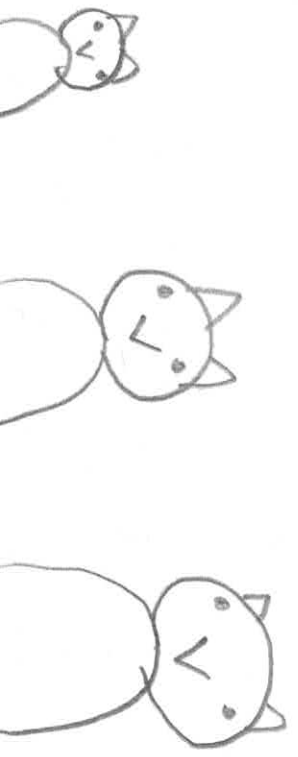

Some pugs got pizza, laser eyed, and rainbow vomited on.

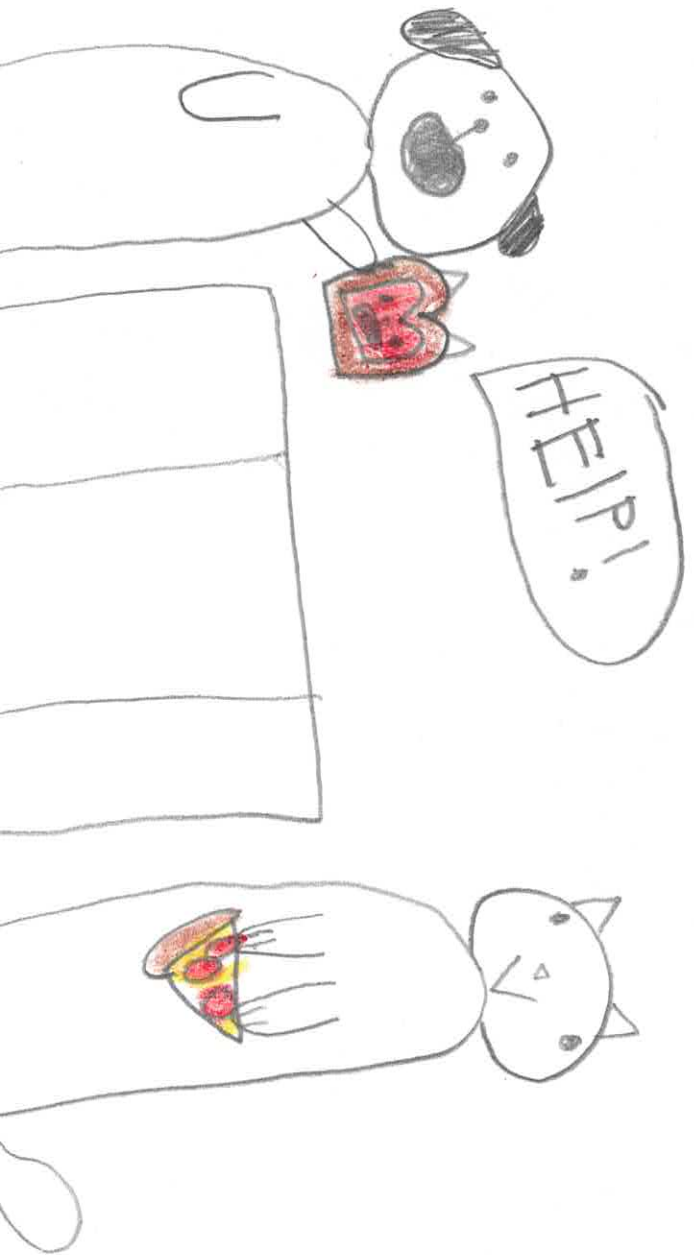

And many cats got pooped on, got diarrhea on them, and got trapped in the buttcheeks of super sized butts

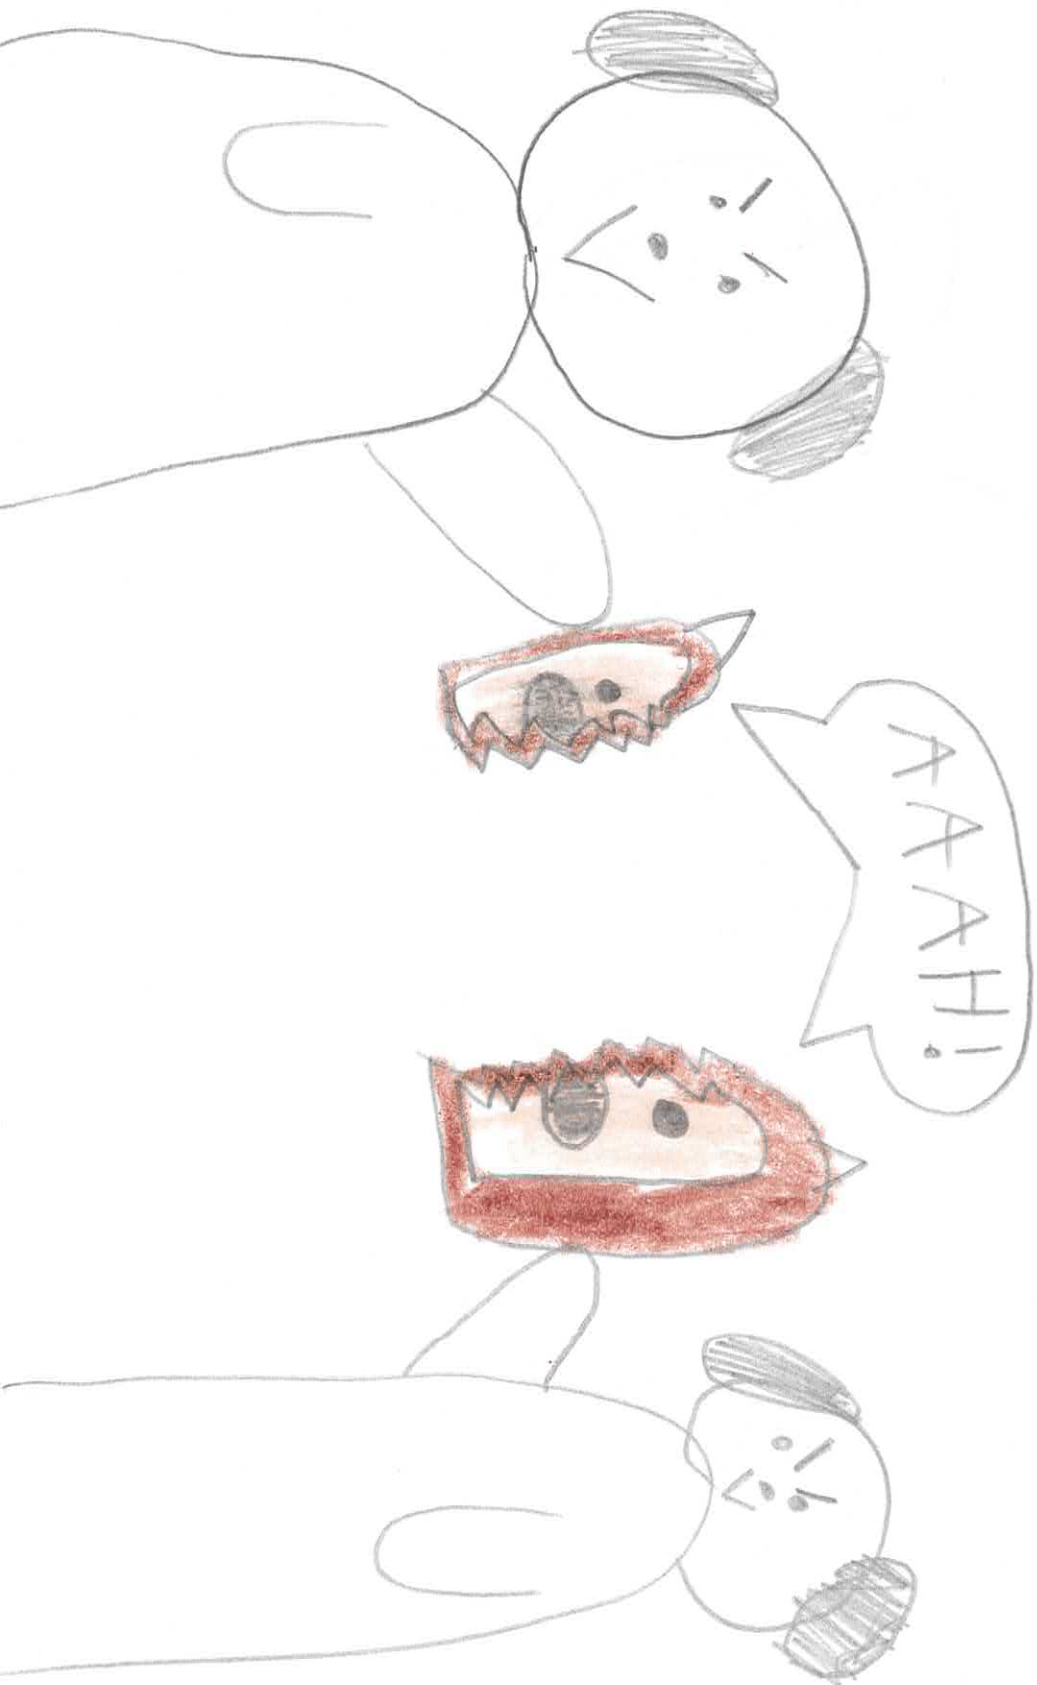

It was hard, but one team had to win in the end.

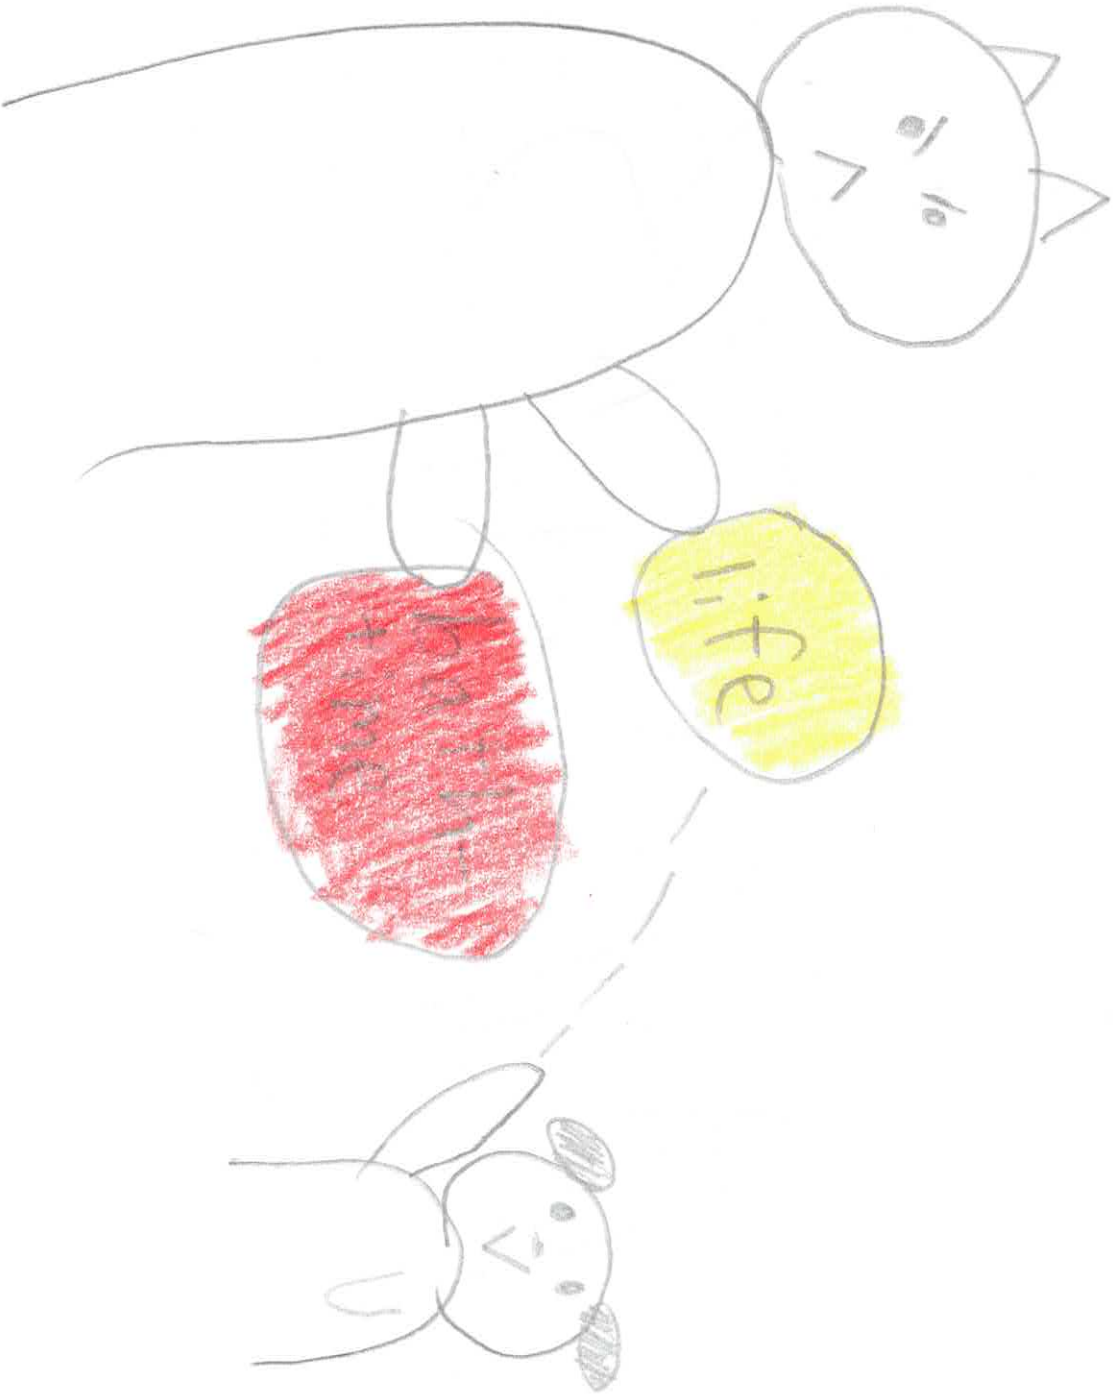

But, it was getting late, so they had a lunch break...

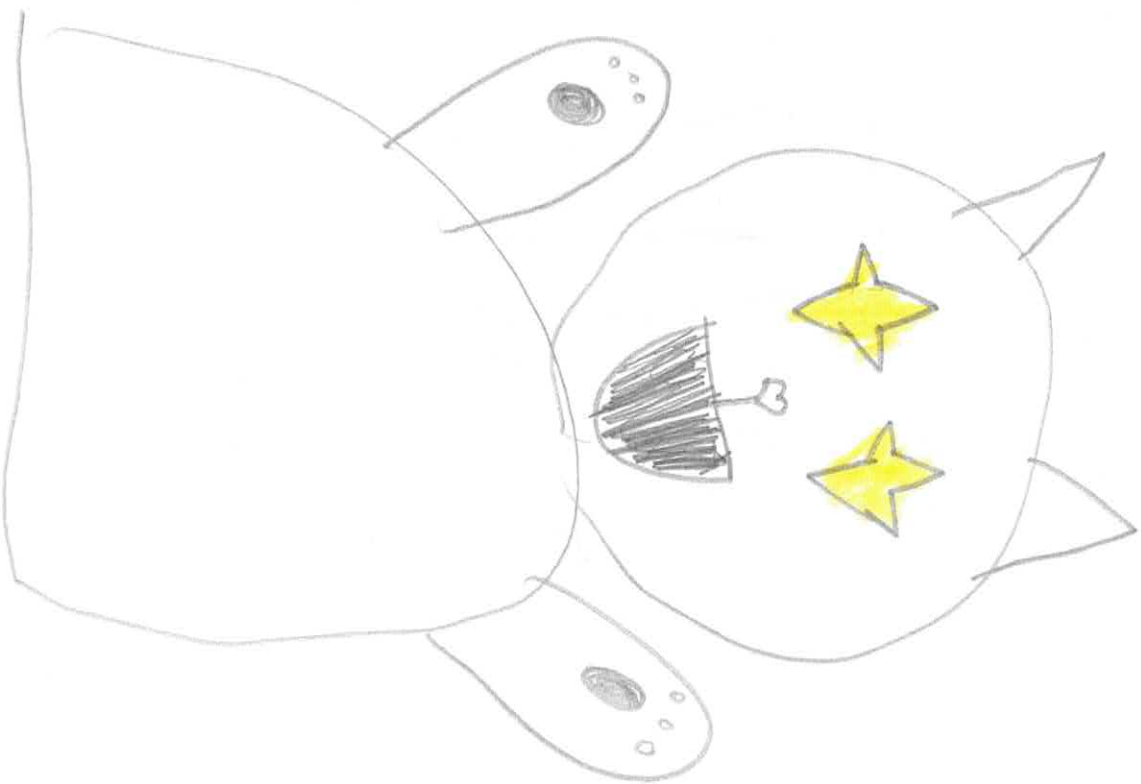

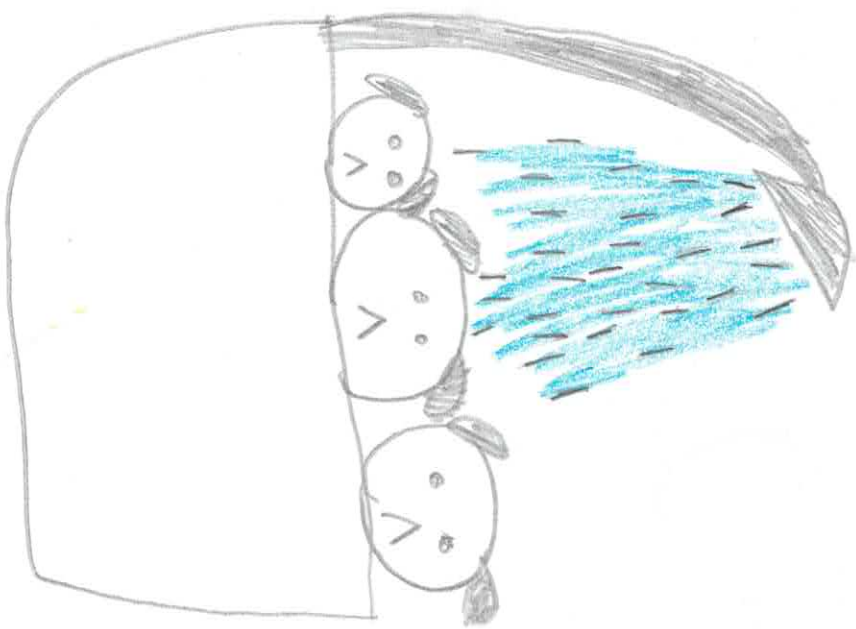

and back to the battle!

It was a battle between life or bathtime.

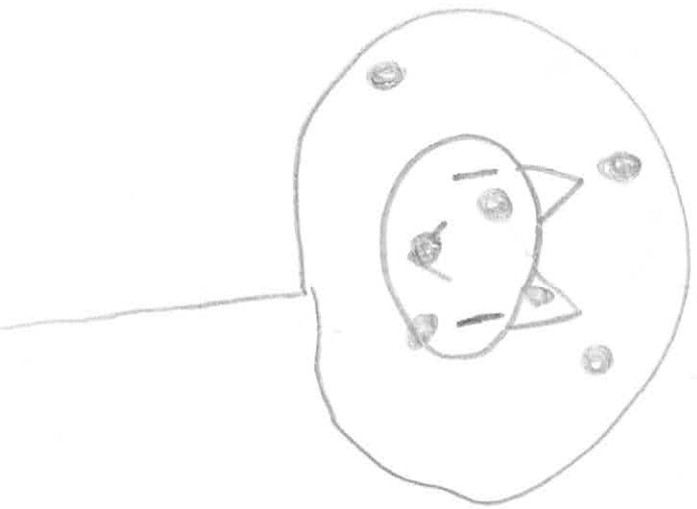

Luckily the CATS won! And the pugs needed to get a bath from their owners because they smelled like they just rolled around in poopy diapers.

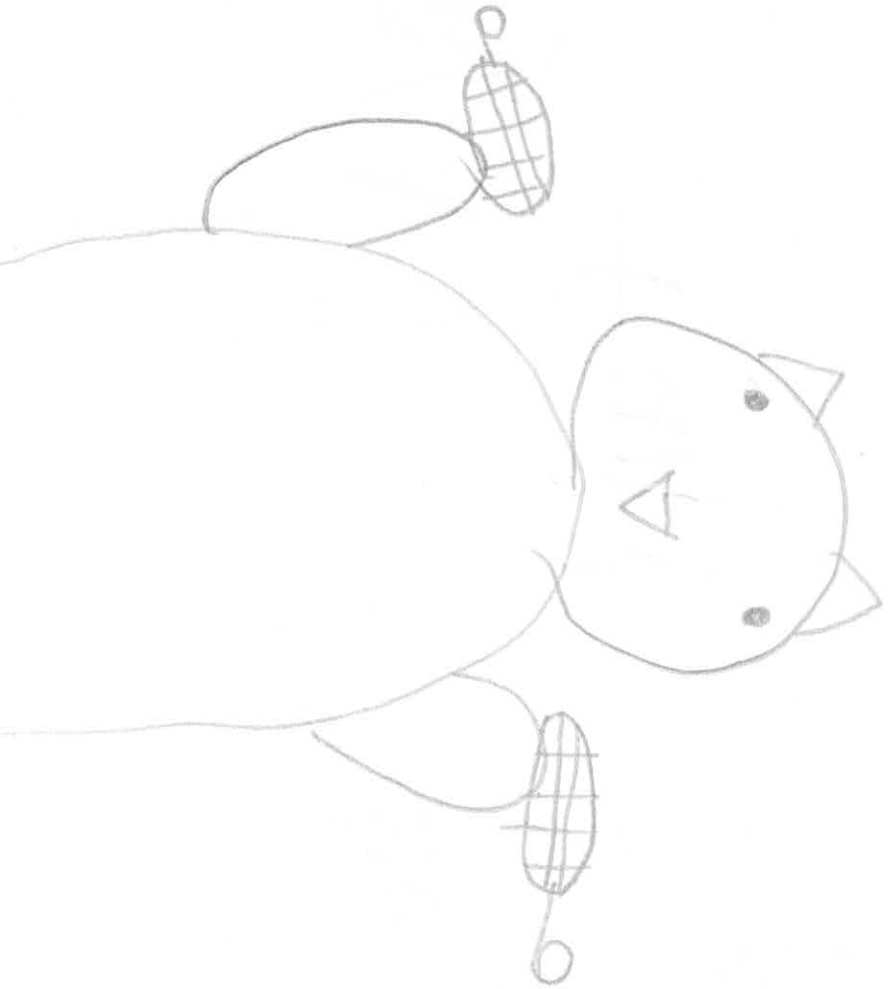

But soon, the pugs will come back for revenge.
