

A Fun Adventure

One day while hanging at the pool with my friend Stitch I saw something crazy. It was a portal on the diving board. First, I swam towards the hole. As I got closer my friend Stitch was pulled into the hole so I decided to follow. The next time I opened my eyes, I was at the beach with Stitch. While at the beach, Stitch and I built sandcastles. Along came a dog and cat to join in the sandcastle building. Then suddenly a big wave came and knocked down our sandcastles and pulled Stitch into the water. Dog, cat and I ran after Stitch and we all fell into another portal. When we opened our eyes we were at In and Out Burger. We were all hungry after a long day at the beach so we bought some burgers and fries. When our stomachs were full, we played a fun game of tag but the manager at In and Out said to stop. I was so happy the portal took me and my friends on some cool adventures. Next time a portal to McDonalds?
