

Mr. Boogie Bumble Mans Discovery

Part 1: Mr. Boogie Bumble Man Mr. Boogie Bumble Man is a green figure that loves green cubes, and HATES yellow cubes. Mr. Boogie Bumble Man can grow multiple arms and legs, and has very long arms and legs. Mr. Boogie Bumble Man can grow green cubes, too! Mr. Boogie Bumble Man is 100,000 years old and is a very nice creature that loves to help humans on planet earth. Mr. Boogie Bumble Man is 7'2 and loves learning about cubes.

Part 2: The discovery Mr. Boogie Bumble Man was on the beach, relaxing on his green cubes, when suddenly he saw something truly amazing. Mr. Boogie Bumble Man saw a red cube, red cubes are thought to be myths, red cubes are alive, and very smart creatures. Mr. Boogie Bumble man ran over and grabbed the red cube. The red cube was about two months old and was sad. The red cube was sad because his parents were taken by the blue cubes, which are mean cubes rivaled with the red cubes. Mr. Boogie Bumble Man had to do something about this poor red cube, and he knew just what to do.

Part 3: Getting in Mr. Boogie Bumble Man knew where the blue cubes secret base of operations was, but didn't know if they had red cubes, because he didn't think they actually existed. He took the red cube and they chatted to learn about each other while they walked. The red cubes name was Kevin, and Kevin can glow red whenever he wants. The two friends had arrived at "The blue cubes secret base of operations" which the big sign said in front of the huge place. They couldn't enter because there was a sign on the door that said "This door is unlocked at all times, but only blue cubes are allowed in." The friends peeked through the door that they weren't allowed in, there was no one inside guarding it, but still, they weren't allowed in. They thought and thought until they knew what to do, they were going to punch the wall until it opened! It was genius. Kevin then realized, and said "we could just go through the door" so they did.

Part 4: Saving the red cubes Mr. Boogie Bumble Man and Kevin were in, they followed the signs until they found "Red cube cells" they entered uninvited. There were three ways to go cell block A, B, and C, they went with cell block C. The friends walked and then saw them, "Mom? Dad? Is that you?" said Kevin "Kevin, we missed you so much!" said Kevin's mom and dad "now just pull the lever that says let all red cubes escape!" The friends ran as fast as they could and pulled the lever, just as they thought they were heroes, they fell down a trapdoor "Goodbye, have fun in the dungeon!" said a shadow as they fell into the dark

Part 5: The dark and unknown Mr. Boogie Bumble man and Kevin were falling until, PLUMP! They had hit the ground, it was too dark to see. Hours, days, months had gone by, but nothing, escaping had felt like a distant memory, but then they heard something. "Hi my name's farmer Bob, can I take your order? Heres our favorites! We have cheeseburgers, fries, and pet chickens!" "What just happened?" said Kevin "I happened!" said farmer Bob "Are you hearing something, Bumble?" said Kevin "I know I am!" said farmer Bob "Yes, I am hearing something Kevin," "Hey Bob, can we have that pet chicken?" said Kevin "Sure thing!" said farmer Bob "Are doing good today named Chicken" said the Chicken "Did this chicken go to school?" said Mr. Boogie Bumble Man "Nope!" said farmer Bob "Can you fly Chicken?" said Kevin "Thing sure!" said Chicken "Hop back!" "We should hop on his back Bumble," said Kevin, "Ok, can you glow so I can see you and grab you?" said Mr. Boogie Bumble Man, "Yup!" and then the two friends flew up and back into the blue cubes base and out of the dungeon.

Part 6: "TASTE MY GREEN CUBES!" "Now we just pull the lever" said Kevin "Do you really think you can just save all of these red cubes?" said the blue cube king "Yup!" said Mr. Boogie Bumble Man as he started grabbing his green cubes "What are those?" said the king "green cubes, they're what i'm going to defeat you with!" said Mr. Boogie Bumble Man as he started throwing a bunch of green cubes at the king "TASTE MY GREEN CUBES!" "AHH!" yelled the king as he fell into his own dungeon "Hi my name's farmer Bob, can I take your order? Heres our favorites! We have cheeseburgers, fries, and pet chickens!" "NOOOO!" Yelled the king "I will let you do the honors!" said Mr. Boogie Bumble Man "Thanks!" said Kevin "Be free!" as he pulled the lever, and all of the red cubes ran free. "KEVIN" said Kevin's parents "you saved us!" "He, saved us," said Kevin "His name is Mr. Boogie Bumble Man, I call him bumble for short!" "Thank you, kevin" said Mr. Boogie Bumble Man "We should hang out together!" "I think that's gonna happen!" said Kevin "And thank you so much, Bumble" "I'm happy to help!" The end
