Ruben ,and his Loaf-Bread Cat Daegan, went to the library to return their books. When they were about to check out their books, they heard a really big thump close by. But no one else heard it because they were listening to music with headphones and relaxing on chairs. They investigated and found a portal and examined it. Then, someone pushed Ruben and Daegan into the portal and now their journey has begun.

When Ruben and Daegan fell in they squished something and saw a ton of black cats and the kittens noticed them. Suddenly, the cats started launching themselves and started shooting them with cat sized laser guns. Ruben and Daegan started running to find shelter and found an armory. There they found human sized laser guns and started fighting back and another portal appeared. Ruben and Daegan ran towards the portal and are now in a different destination(Daegan was shooting himself the whole time but he is immortal).

The second portal leads Ruben and Daegan into a dimension where animals and humans switch bodies. But, Ruben and Daegan were normal and were outnumbered by all the humans and animals. Since Ruben and Daegan were not body swapped the animals and humans started attacking them with their kitchen spoons. But, Ruben and Daegan still had their laser guns and made them unconscious them. But, the mayor was still alive and together they defeated the mayor in seconds. Then, a portal appeared and they escaped the second dimension and onto the final one. The final portal was located on the Huntington Beach Pier.

Ruben and Daegan were in the final dimension: the Lava dimension and saw a giant beast with lava spikes and lava inside him on a giant throne with skeleton heads The beast was the Lava King and was having a nap 10 minutes ago at 3:00 but Ruben and Daegan interrupted it. The Lava king was furious because he was trying to sleep but Ruben and Daegan woke him up. The Lava king started attacking them with a lava gun .But, their laser guns did nothing to the Lava King. Ruben and Daegan saw an ice spike above him and shot it and crushed the king.

A portal appeared and they went through the portal to go back to reality. The final portal leads them to Lake View Elementary in Huntington Beach.
