Ormond Beach, Florida

Built in the late 1800's, Rose Villa was established as a boutique hotel and bed and breakfast in 1901. A small exclusive adjunct to

Henry Flagler's Ormond Hotel, it accommodated important guests who preferred more privacy than the famous hotel

afforded.

In 2007, Bill Jones transformed this jewel into the restaurant experience it is today.

The food and ambiance is one of a kind. Southern Fine Dining in a home from the 1800's is the Brunch, Lunch, Dinner, or Special Event destination near the quaint beach town of Ormond Beach. A basic crab cake made extra special with a red pepper coulis. A chicken sandwich with pimento cheese and a honey bourbon hot sauce is over the top.
