Certificate Transfer/Replacement Instructions

(One form required for each new certificate)

Name on old certificate _____

Old Certificate # _____ #of shares on old certificate _____

#of shares on new certificate _____

1. Original Stock Certificate Endorsement

The Original Water Stock Certificate must be signed (endorsed over to the irrigation company for transfer) in front of, and signed by, a notary public by the same person(s) or entity(s) as the name on certificate. The notary should sign and stamp on the line on the back of the certificate titled "Witness". If a person is signing on the behalf of a company, trust, or other person, we must have proof they are authorized to sign. If the original owner is deceased, a death certificate is required. Some examples of legal documentation are court order, power of attorney, will, or articles of incorporation.

The original stock certificate must be surrendered. if the original certificate is lost, you must obtain a Lost Document Bond. If you need a Lost Document Bond, Lamond Woods at Sentry West is a suggested Insurance Bond Agent. (801-438-9953)
