

ROLE	DESCRIPTION	RECOMMENDED PERSONNEL
Title IX Coordinator	This person is the lead administrator in charge of Title IX compliance on the campus. This person's contact information will be published for parents/students/staff to contact to report allegations of sexual harassment. The Title IX Coordinator will be responsible for opening investigations, applying supportive measures, and imposing sanctions.	Jonathan Fong
Title IX Investigator 1	This person is responsible for following the investigative procedure once a case is opened. The procedure involves collecting evidence, witnessing interviews, and writing and distributing a report of the evidence. Parties may be represented by legal counsel during investigations.	Christie Heiner

Title IX Investigator 2	This person is responsible for following the investigative procedure once a case is opened. The procedure involves collecting evidence, witnessing interviews, and writing and distributing a report of the evidence. Parties may be represented by legal counsel during investigations.	Ken Faulkner
Title IX Decision Maker	This person reviews the investigative report, solicits final questions from the respondent and complainant, and issues a written decision. The written decision includes a finding of responsibility, remedies/supportive measures, and sanctions, as applicable.	John Baker
Title IX Appeals Committee	This person hears any appeals that are requested of the Decision Maker's final decision. Appeals can be heard on the basis of bias, new evidence, or procedural irregularity. The Appeal Committee reviews a written notice of appeal and responds in writing.	Kathy Tolman