Thursday through Sundays, 6pm to midnight, tune in to the Beautiful Homes Network for programming content on how to buy, build, and maintain your dream luxury log home.

Get Your Log Home Featured on National TV— Four Months for Only $350!

Thursday through Sunday evenings during prime time we stream the best content on log, timber, and tiny homes from the Log Home Channel. Those interested in purchasing a log home watch on these nights to see property tours of some of the most beautiful log homes that are currently for sale. We use social media to promote this special programming to those interested in purchasing a log home. For only $350 we'll feature your log home property tour on each of these days for the next four months!

Property Tours + Television = SOLD !

Realtors, do you have a log home listing? Reach motivated buyers by featuring your property during our Sunday log home programming. These eager buyers tune in specifically to view log homes available in their desired areas and are ready to purchase now. Don't miss this prime marketing opportunity—get your log home property tour aired and seen by countless buyers of log homes on national television today! Our production team can create a stunning high-end property tour from your still images at an affordable cost (avg price is $200). Call for details and pricing.
