

Meet Our Team - Philip Cripe

Geopolitical Risk & European Market Strategy, Strategic Partner Group

- Founder & CEO of CripeHub Solutions LLC, a strategic advisory and technology consulting firm delivering geopolitical analysis, business/technology advisory, and fractional C-suite services, with a focus on Europe and North America.
- Geopolitical Risk & Market Strategy Advisor, focused on political, security, and economic developments across Europe and North America, backed by firsthand field experience and an established analytical track record.
- Co-Founder & CEO of BMR (Belkin Marketing Reliability), a B2B SaaS platform functioning as a "yellow pages of AI" — a credibility-scoring and discoverability engine that helps businesses get found and trusted by AI systems like ChatGPT, Perplexity and Claude.
- Over a Decade of International Business & IT Consulting, having worked with 100+ clients across technology firms in Europe and North America.
- Fractional COO & CEO for Several Technology Firms, providing executive-level leadership on corporate strategy and operations across multiple engagements.
- French Political Experience – Founded and led a French political party for seven years and ran for the French Parliament, bringing firsthand grassroots political insight to strategic and government-adjacent engagements.
- Published Geopolitical Analyst, writing ongoing analysis on international security and political developments across Europe and North America.
- French-American dual citizen, natively bilingual in French and English with professional working proficiency in Russian.