

SILHOUETTE DANCE 2025 THANKSGIVING WEEK

Hello Silhouette Families,

As we head into the Thanksgiving holiday, we want to ensure that every dancer has the option to attend class if they are available. We understand that many families will be traveling or spending time together this week, so all classes during Thanksgiving week will be optional. Because of this, make-up classes will not be offered for this week.

To accommodate schedules, we have combined a few classes and planned fun, engaging lessons for those dancers who are able to attend. We appreciate your understanding and flexibility during the holiday season.

You can view your dancer's class schedule for the week in the parent portal under the Calendar.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to us.

Warmly,
Laura & Jeff Schmidt
Silhouette Dance
