

Get Early Access: Join the TheraPay Now Beta Waitlist

Be the first to shape a therapist-first tech platform—before we launch.

What is TheraPay Now?

TheraPay Now is an AI-powered, therapist-built platform designed to simplify private practice, enhance client-therapist fit, and give clinicians more control, visibility, and income. We're currently enrolling licensed mental health professionals to join our Founding Therapist Beta Group before we launch our MVP (Minimum Viable Product).

How to Join the Beta Waitlist (Pre-MVP)

Step 1: Visit www.therapaynow.com

Click "Join the Beta" from the homepage or menu.

Step 2: Complete the Interest Form

Tell us about your:

- Name & credentials (license number)
- License state(s)
- Email & contact preferences
- Clinical specialty and client population

Step 3: Confirm Your Spot

You'll receive a confirmation email with:

- Your reserved place on the beta list
- Updates on launch progress
- Early access to onboarding + contributor opportunities

Why Sign Up Now?

- Early access to core tools at no cost
- Influence product development before launch
- Be recognized as a Founding Therapist
- First to upload, sell, or share tools in the Therapist Marketplace
- Host CEU trainings, webinars, and courses post-launch

What's Coming

As a beta tester, you'll be among the first to use:

- AI client-therapist matching
- HIPAA-compliant scheduling + smart documentation
- Therapist-owned Marketplace + publishing opportunities
- Cultural & clinical alignment tools for better outcomes

Ideal for:

- Solo & group practice therapists
- Clinical supervisors & CEU trainers
- Mental health professionals eager to lead innovation
- Organizations looking to support culturally responsive tech
