

ACCANO Scholarship Fund 2022-2023

Black students have historically been and continue to be underrepresented in all forms of higher education and the financial cost to attend University or College remains a barrier to many of them. To help increase access to higher education, African Caribbean Canadian association of Northern Ontario (ACCANO) has established a scholarship fund to benefit local Black students joining post secondary education and are actively involved in ACCANO and the community.

Application deadline: 18/11/2022 at 5:00PM

Value of each Award: $500

To qualify an applicant must satisfy the following selection criteria:

- Be a Black Canadian Citizen or Permanent Resident completing high school or a university student from Sault Ste. Marie and area; or international Black student residing in Sault Ste. Marie and attending Sault College or Algoma University
- Demonstrate leadership in community service and volunteer activities
- Active involvement in ACCANO will be given preference

Required documents:

- Complete Community Service and Volunteer Activities table to demonstrate service to their community, school and ACCANO
- A letter of recommendation from a teacher or community member
- Proof of Canadian residency status, and student enrolment in high school or post secondary institution

Important notices:

- Applications without ALL the required supporting documents will not be considered
- Applications must be emailed to accanob@gmail.com
- Recipients will be notified via e-mail as soon as the Selection Committee has made its decision

ACCANO Scholarship Fund 2022-2023

Application form

Applicant Information

Name of Applicant
Street Address
City/Province/Postal Code
Phone Number
E-mail Address
High School
Post Secondary Institution
Program of Study

Community Service and Volunteer Activities

Please provide the following information related to community service and volunteer activities.

Activity	Role/Position

