Congraulations Métis citizens on the new, OFFICIAL Seven Oaks Métis Council Sash!

This beautiful sash holds a deep meaning within its threads. We know those that wear it, will do so proudly and with honor as they represent all Métis!

What do the colors in our sash represent?

White represents the infinity on our blue and red Métis flags. The blue Métis flag was flown on June 19, 1816 at the Battle of Seven Oaks. White also represents our connection to earth and creator.

Black represents the dark period of dispossession and suppression our people endured after 1870. We never want to forget how hard it was for our ancestors and what they endured to protect and keep our culture, traditions, and language alive.

As you can see, we have many shades of green which represent fertility, growth, and prosperity for of our great Métis Nation. Green also represents our need to keep moving forward and reclaiming our rightful place in Canadian history and Canada today. Seven Oaks Métis Council strives to make a difference in the lives of all Métis Citizens.

Together, the Métis Nation will do amazing things and keep our culture, traditions, and language thriving!

A Holiday Tourtière, made Métis Style!

Yields 1x9" pie INGREDIENTS

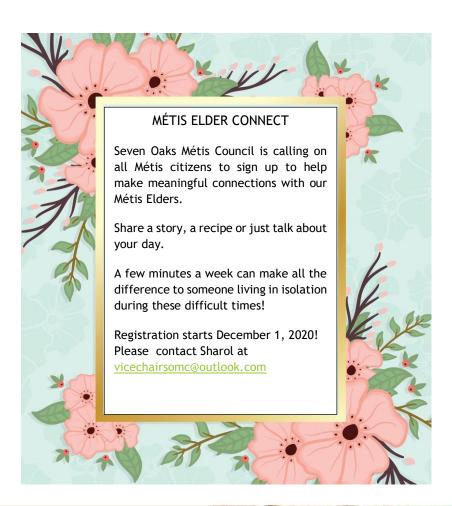

1 lb ground beef
1 lb ground pork
1 c chopped onions
1 tsp dried sage
1 tsp cinnamon
1/8 tsp clove
1 tsp salt
1/3 c white wine
1 c mashed potatoes
1 tbsp canola oil
2 x 9" pie crusts

- 1. In a large saucepan, soften onions with oil
- 2. Add the meat and continue cooking until meat is done, making sure to stir frequently to crumble meat.
- 3. Add white wine and the spices, cook for another 5 minutes stirring frequently 4. Lastly add the mashed potatoes and mix until combined. Adjust the seasoning and allow to cool. Cover and refrigerate for four hours or until completely chilled.

Add cooled mixture to pie crust, then cover with second crust. Brush with egg wash. Make an incision in the center. Press the edge to seal with a fork or your fingers. Bake 50 minutes to one hour or until golden brown.

Plants to Help Us

Bitterroot (Lewisia rediviva)

Wisakipakos: île-à-la-Crosse Michif

Wiisakibut: Michif-Cree

"To increase milk flow after childbirth and purify the blood"

For many Aboriginal Peoples in and around the Rocky Mountains, this plant is revered and deeply respected. It's annual harvest included stories and ceremony.

Bitterroot tea has been used for heart trouble, relieving heart pain and the pain of pleurisy. The dried root is reportedly pounded and chewed for sore throats, and is used as a treatment for diabetes. It also counteracts the effects of poison ivy rash. A poultice of the raw root is used in external applications on sores.

It is sometimes soaked overnight, cooked in soups, fried with fish or meat, and used in combination with other food.

Did vou know?

Metis women were integral to all endeavours. They played important roles in commercial and domestic production and in the political life of what was to become the Canadian and American Northwest. Metis women were the clothing designers, doctors, pharmacists, midwives, peacekeepers, artists and agriculturalists. Metis women were the children's teachers and keepers of the Metis languages. Metis women taught the newly arrived Euro-Canadian and European women to prepare and preserve wild game and other foods which were needed to survive the harsh winters. Similarly, they provided the clothing technology and taught the newcomers the techniques and materials necessary to make warm and comfortable clothing.
