

Meet Julia McLeod at our March 2nd meeting!

We are proud to welcome Julia McLeod to our guild in March! She is a quilt maker living and working in northern California's San Francisco Bay Area. She specializes in making quilts from rescued textiles, particularly silks. Neckties, saris, kimono and furnishing fabrics all find their way into her quilts.

Born and raised in England, Julia worked as a menswear textile designer in the woolen- and worsted mills of Yorkshire and Scotland, and later for a company on Savile Row, in the heart of London's bespoke tailoring industry.

She moved to New York City in the early 1990's, and America has been her home ever since. Julia enjoys lecturing and teaching on the subject of quilting-making with unusual and reclaimed textiles. She is also a trained quilt judge. Her book 'Patchwork Luxe' is published by C&T Publishing.

Julia will be teaching a half day workshop on Piecing the Pineapple on Tuesday, March 3rd. Space is limited to 24 students, so you'll want to register early!
