July 2022

President's Corner

Friends,

Summer is here; many of you know I take off to West Virginia to visit my mother who is a quilter extraordinaire. I will be away for most of July, so if you need anything please contact one of our board Members for assistance.

Since my mom has no internet (she does not like all this technology) I will not be able to send the president's message for next month, so Carolee and Janice will be using my space in the newsletter to outline the August Community Service meeting. I believe they will need to know if you plan to bring your sewing machine to help at this Community Service meeting. Please let Susan know in the reservation text by July 18.

As I mentioned before elections are coming up for vice-president, secretary, communications directors, and community service directors. Lora Lechmanick has agreed to chair the nominations committee, so let her know if you are interested in one of these positions.

After the fact I have heard several times that one of our members has been sick or had surgery. That saddens me. Please let Jeanie McLaughlin know if one of our members needs some love from the guild.

I had many positive comments about Show & Tell last month. We will continue to have it on the stage with "Vanna's." However, having all the UFOs at once did not work well as it was too crowded. We will rethink what to do with that. This month's UFO is #8, which will be part of the August Show & Tell.

I am getting really excited about the retreat. Sue tells me there are only a couple of openings left.

Do not forget items for the church's food bank and back to school item for the children at Oneco Elementary, in addition to community service quilts, dog beds, and cat mats.

See you August 1st.

Hugs and chocolate,
Sheila

July 4

Since July 4 is our nation's birthday, there will be no July meeting. Enjoy the holiday with friends or family, and we'll see you in August! Be sure to put the August Community Service meeting workshop on your calendar! And don't forget that on July 8 there will be a Community Service workshop at the South Manatee library on 26th St., beginning at 9:00 a.m.
