

The Community Messenger February 2026

Erica Extemporaneous

A friend recently shared an insight with me gleaned from her personal Bible study. It occurred to her that “the God who took care of the two to three million people in the desert for forty years is the same God who takes care of me, and your mom, and you, and all of us.” She marveled that she had never quite thought of things that way. That kind of constancy, that steadfast faith, that longevity... It is hard to comprehend. It is all at once the most basic and simple premise and an unfathomable mystery.

The same God who breathed life into all of creation, naming and claiming each one of us, is the God who lingers at the bedside as one’s final breath is drawn. It is the God who weeps as entire species of animals face extinction, as the climate itself shifts and strains.

The same God who parted the Red Sea, quite literally making a way where there was no way, is the God who guards and guides our discernment process when we are faced with impossible choices. It is the God who grants us the courage to take that first fateful step, not altogether sure where it might take us.

The same God who sent his only child into a world gone awry, a world that would reject and ridicule him, criticize and crucify him, is the God who sends us into a world weary, nearly bereft, but holding out hope. It is the God who gives us a voice, who gives us the courage to speak.

The same God... and we, who know God, who are known by God, who strive to share the love, the compassion God has given, will never be the same.

Take good care,

Erica

Greetings from Gabby!

John Howland and I are looking forward to making paper hearts to share with our friends on Valentines Day. We have a lot of friends living in Pastor Erica's office. It might take a while. That's okay. We have time! We haven't been exploring too much. It is too snowy! It is too cold! Would you like to be our Valentine?

Your friends~ Gabby
and John Howland

News from the Official Board

The decision to cancel our worship service on January 25 was made after an online discussion by board members. It was noted that most of the parking lot was ice-covered, and the service that plows for us had no salt to spread (this is an ongoing problem in our area). In light of these facts, the extremely low temperatures, and the expected snowfall, it was decided to cancel the service for the safety of our staff and our congregation. Any questions or concerns about this decision can be addressed to myself or any member of the Board.

From the Open and Affirming Committee

Members of the congregation enjoyed Brandy Pauline's presentation entitled "An Unconventional Path to God". If you missed it, it will be available on the church's website and on our Facebook page. Brandy has also posted it on Facebook.

Our next event will be Rev. Erica Brown discussing "Sin, Sexuality, and Scripture". This will take place in the Chapel after worship on February 15th.
