Four Types of Social Security

Retirement

Workers who have worked for enough years are eligible for retirement at age 62.

Survivor

If you are the surviving spouse or minor child of a worker who qualified for Social Security retirement.

Disability

If you haven't reached retirement age but have met the work requirements and are considered disabled under the SSA program's medical guidelines.

Family

If you're eligible for disability or retirement benefits, your current or divorced spouse and minor children may receive benefits.

The Social Security Act (1935)

- Established social insurance to prevent poverty
- Established a Board of Trustees for Social Security Trust Funds
- Requires an annual Trustees Report (to Congress) on the status of Funds

The Board of Trustees includes:

- Secretaries of the Treasury, Labor, and Health and Human Services
- The Commissioner of Social Security
- Two public representatives appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate

A Brief History of Social Security

1930's & 40's

- Social Security is signed into law. (8-14-1935)
 - (House 372 to 33, Senate 77 to 6 in favor)
- Initial SSB was paid in 1937.
- Benefits extend to spouses, surviving spouses, and minor children in 1939.

1950's & 60's

- The first cost of living increase (COLA) was added.
- The “Medicare Act” provides healthcare to beneficiaries.

1970's & 80's

- “COLA” is provided yearly based on the annual increase in consumer prices in 1972.
 - automatic adjustments began in 1975.
- President Reagan signs into law the taxation of benefits (1983)

1990's & 2000's

- President Clinton ends eligibility for most non-citizens.
- The Senior Citizens' Freedom to Work Act signed into law
- 2024 – Social Security celebrates its 89th birthday.

Then & Now

1935	Today
Average life expectancy was under age 60.	The average life expectancy is 78.4 overall Males=75.8 Females 81.1 years old
Most people would not live to collect benefits.	People can outlive their retirement savings
Designed to “supplement” retirement.	40% of current retiree income
Worker / Retiree ratio 160 to 1	Worker / Retiree ratio 2.8 to 1
Benefits paid annually - $1.7 million	Benefits paid annually - $1.6Trillion (69 million Americans)
Poverty rate for Seniors exceeded 50%	The poverty rate for Seniors is less than 9.5%

How is Social Security Financed?

Under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), wage earners and their employers are required to make mandatory contributions from earnings up to a maximum annual cap.

The cap for 2026 is $184,500.

The self-employed pay both employee and employer shares; however, they can deduct the employer's share from taxable ordinary income.

Beneficiaries with higher incomes pay income taxes on a portion of their benefits.

A portion of the tax goes to Social Security trust funds; a portion goes to the Medicare Hospital Insurance fund.

Interest: Any interest earned on trust fund reserves are paid back into the funds.

Future of Social Security?

(Topics currently being discussed)

- SS Trust Fund (combined) [projected] to disappear by 2034.
- Social Security cannot operate in the red.
- Beginning in 2034, SS can only pay out 80% of benefits.
 - (voluntary donations– www.ssa.gov)
- Potential Changes
 - Move FRA from 67 to 70.
 - All earnings are subject to SS tax. (Current level - $184,500)
 - Means testing (Bend Points!!!!) (Change to a welfare program)
 - Decrease % Delayed Retirement Credits / Do not adjust DRCs if FRA is increased to age 70.
 - Delay eligibility from age 62 to age 64.
 - Reduce COLA adjustments – Chained CPI-U Index

Qualifying for Retirement Benefits

40 credits are needed for retirement.

- Averages out to 10 Years of part-time work
- 1 Credit = $1,890 FICA wages/earnings
- Maximum of 4 credits earned annually (J, A, J, O)

Age requirements

- 62 (Partial benefit)

(Must ATTAIN age 62 for the entire month!! Attain age, the day before the birthday)

- 66 to 67 (Full benefits) (Full Retirement Age)
- FRA to 70 (Full benefits + Delayed Retirement Credits)

Must file an application (Entitled) - SSA will not come calling!

What Are Social Security Benefit Amounts

Benefit amount is known as the Primary Insurance Amount (PIA). When individuals initially become eligible for social security or disability benefits, the amount received is normally the sum of:

- 90% of the first $1,286 of average monthly earnings
- 32% of average monthly earnings over $1,286 and up to $7,749
- 15% of average monthly earnings over $7,749

Payment Dates

Social Security Retirement Benefits Are Paid Based on (actual) Birthdate:

1st – 10th: 2nd Wednesday (following month)

11th – 20th: 3rd Wednesday (following month)

21 – end: 4th Wednesday (following month)

What is Full Retirement Age (FRA)?

FRA is the age at which an individual first becomes eligible for full, unreduced benefits and depends on the year of birth.

The FRA for those born in 1960 or later is 67, but reduced benefits can begin at 62.

Benefits are increased slightly each month until FRA at age 67, when 100% of their monthly benefits will be received.

What is Full Retirement Age (FRA)?

Maximum benefits

Each additional year worked adds another year of earnings to Social Security records; higher lifetime earnings often increase monthly benefit amount

For those born in 1943 or later, an additional 8% per year is added to benefits for each year an individual delays application for benefits beyond FRA

*Application for Medicare is still recommended at age 65, delay can increase cost

Spousal/Ex-Spousal Benefits (Part 1)

When a worker files for retirement benefits, the worker's spouse may be eligible for a benefit based on the worker's earnings...

- A nonworking spouse will receive 50% of their spouse's PIA benefit if they apply at FRA.
- A spouse can choose to retire at age 62; however, their benefit could be reduced by as much as 32.5%, depending on their FRA.
- In most cases, it makes sense for the higher-earning spouse to delay benefits up to age 70 to secure the maximum benefit.

If you are divorced, you can receive benefits based on your ex-spouse's record (even if they have remarried) if:

- You are 62 years of age or older
- You are currently unmarried
- Your marriage lasted 10+ years
- The benefit you are entitled to is less than the benefit you would receive based on your ex-spouse's work

Source: <https://www.ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/planner/credits.html#h2>

Spousal/Ex-Spousal Benefits (Part 2)

- Additional items to note:
- If your ex-spouse is NOT claiming benefits, you can still receive benefits if:
 - the marriage lasted 10+ years
 - you've been divorced for 2 years or more
 - And your ex-spouse is at least 62 years old (eligible to file for their own benefit).
- If you are eligible for retirement benefits on your own record, SSA will pay that amount first
- If the benefit on your ex-spouse's record is higher, you will get an additional amount so that the combination of benefits equals the higher amount.

Who is Eligible for Survivor Benefits?

Dependents of deceased workers may be eligible for Survivor Benefits. The number of required credits depends on the age of the worker at death; however, no more than 40 credits are required.

If the deceased worker was employed for 1.5 years during the 3 years before his or her death, survivors of very young workers may be eligible for benefits

<https://www.ssa.gov/benefits/survivors/>

Survivor Benefits

Eligibility Age

- Widow(er) age 60 or older, but as early as age 50 if disabled within seven years of the deceased spouse's death;
- At any age, if caring for a dependent child of the deceased (called a mother's or father's benefit).
- Remarriage at age 60 or later does not disqualify a widow or widower or former spouse if 10 or more years have passed since the deceased's death from claiming benefits from the deceased.

Amounts of Benefits

- Aged widow benefits as much as 100% of what the deceased spouse was collecting, including delayed retirement credits earned by the deceased or entitled to collect at death.

If a deceased spouse dies prior to claiming benefits:

- Prior to FRA, survivor PIA = FRA benefit
- After FRA, surviving PIA = what the deceased spouse's benefit would have been at the time of death, including the delayed retirement credits earned but never received

<https://www.ssa.gov/benefits/survivors/>

Are Non-Workers Eligible for Survivor Benefits?

- Widowed individuals supporting children younger than 16 years of age or disabled are eligible
- Unmarried children younger than 18 years of age (19 for full-time students) are eligible
- If the deceased worker provided more than 50% of support, the worker's parents are eligible at 62 years of age

<https://www.ssa.gov/benefits/survivors/>

How Much Benefits are Taxed

Individual

Married (Joint)

Married (Separate)

This filing status typically means all Social Security benefits will be taxed

How Much Benefits are Taxed

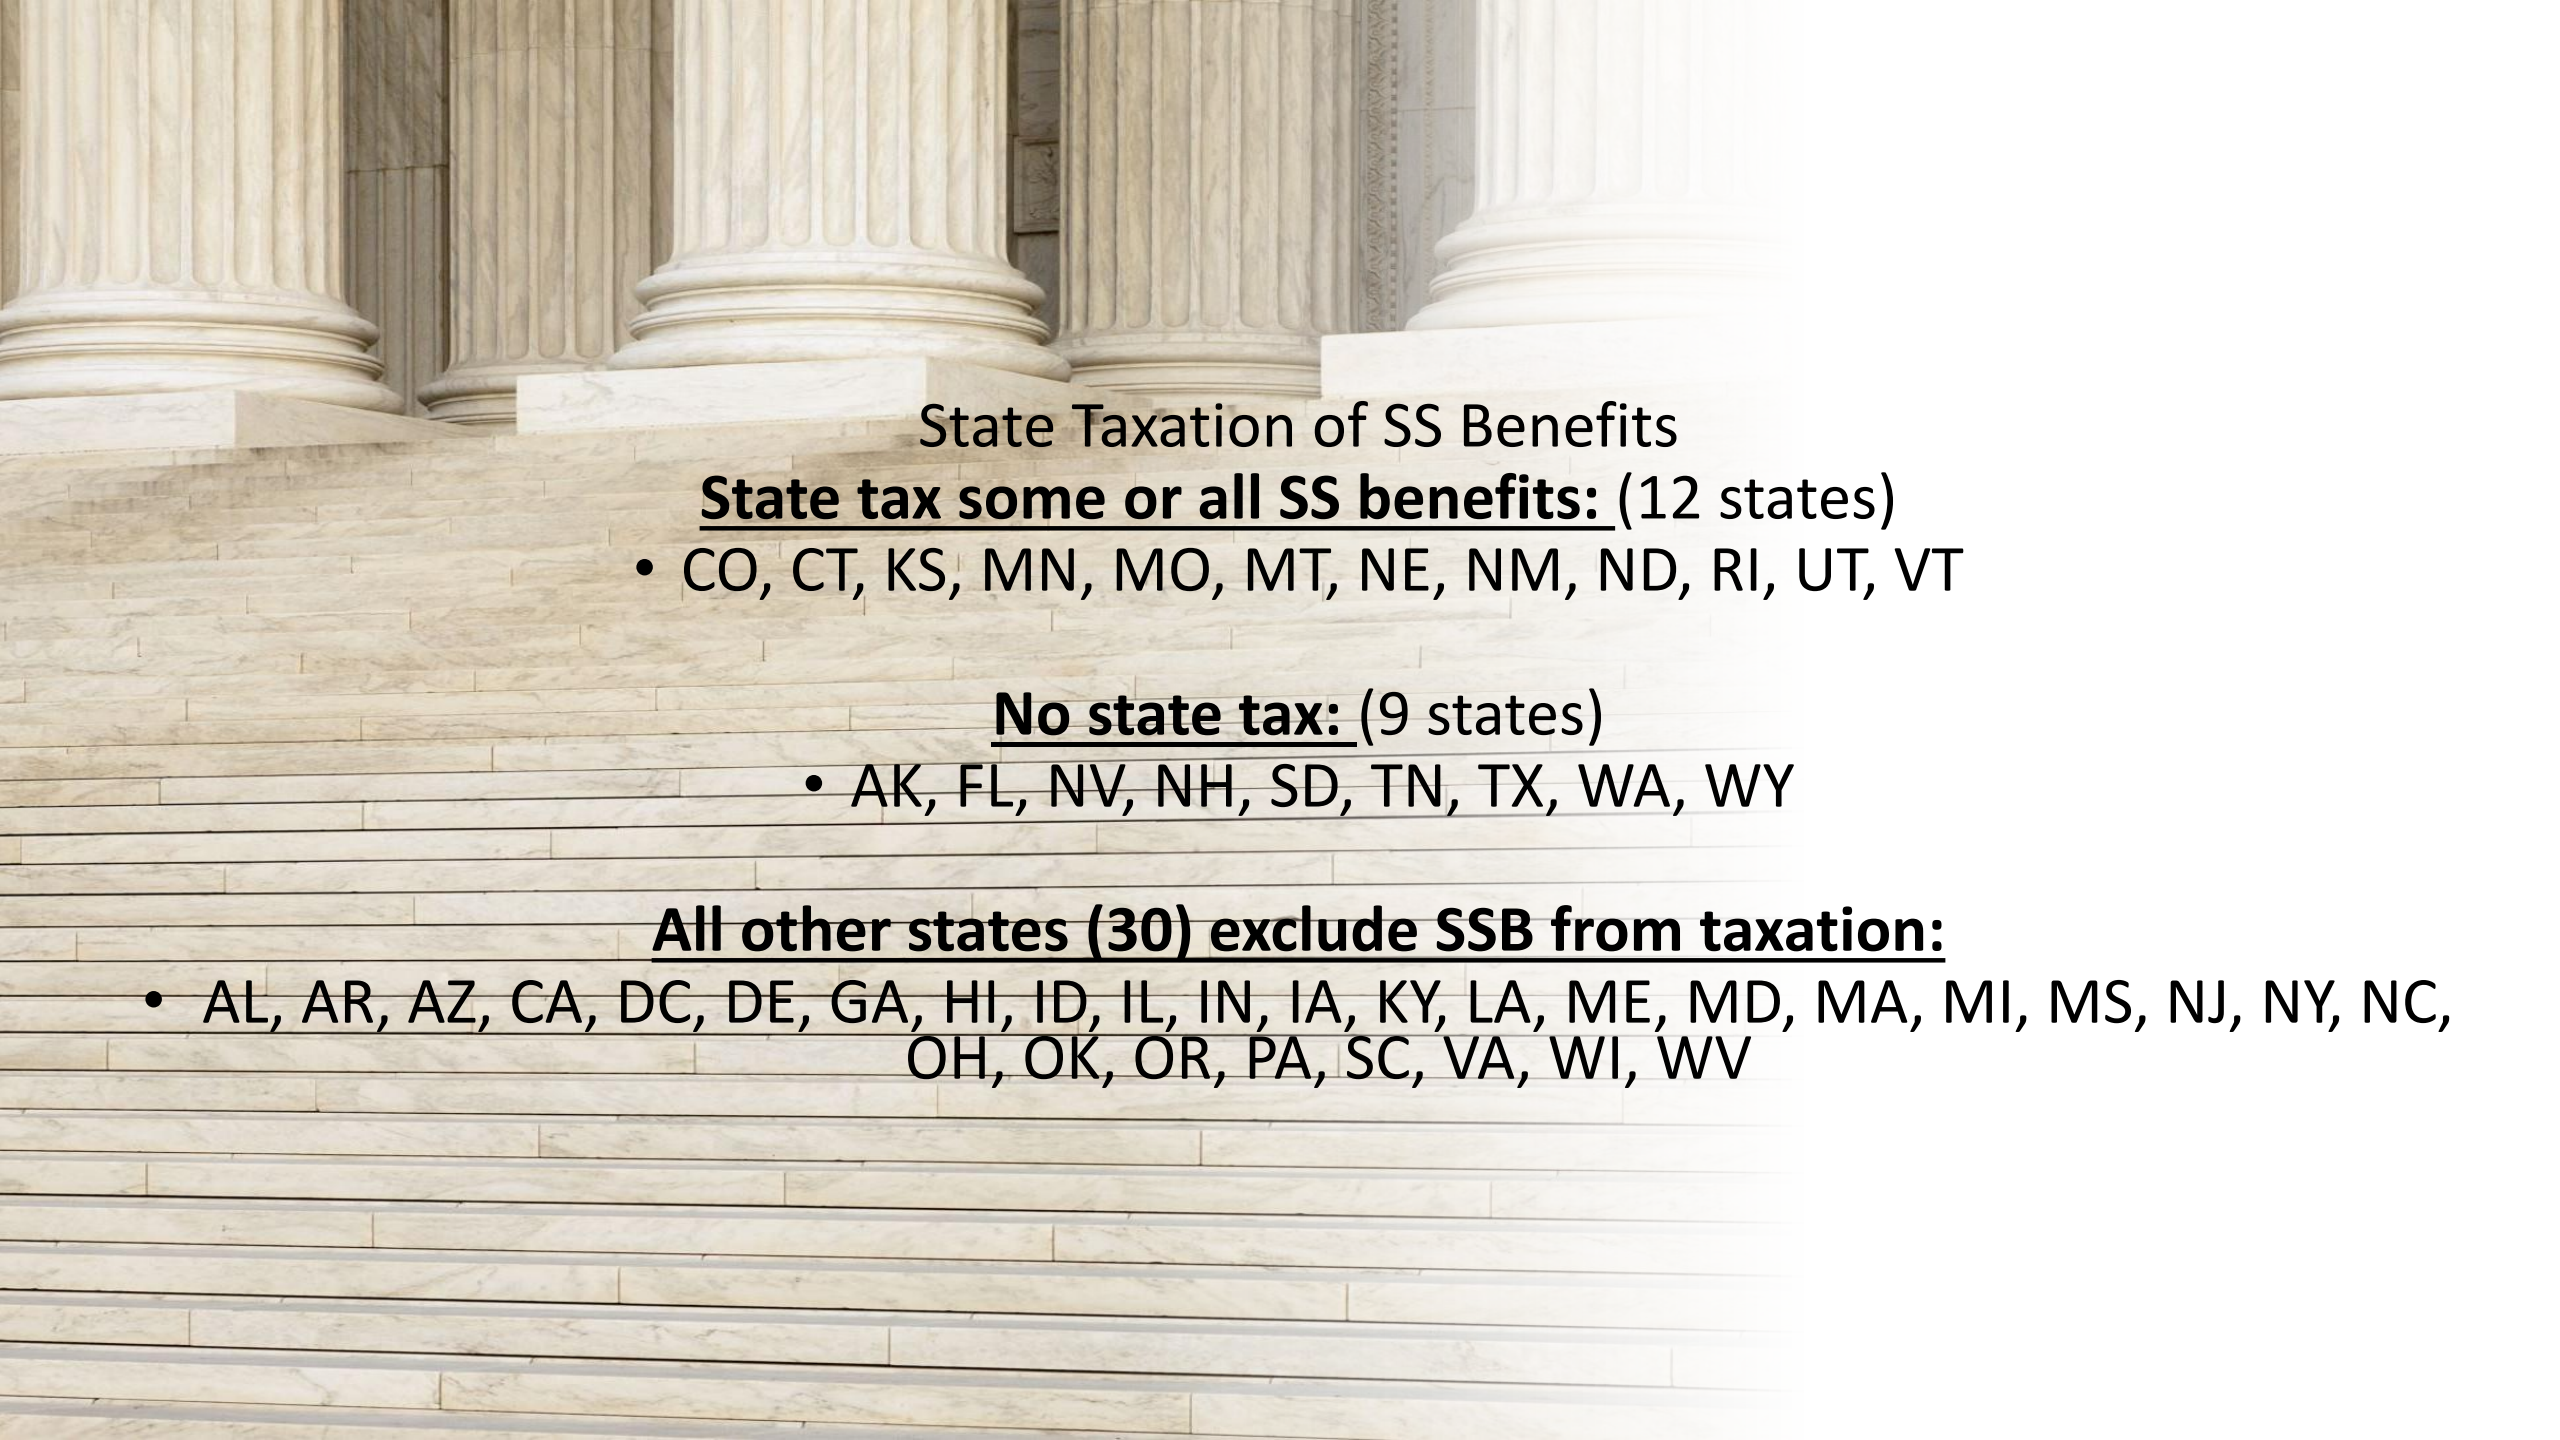

Single or HOH

- Combined income between $25,000 and $34,000
 - Up to 50% of benefits are taxable
- Combined income of more than $34,000
 - Up to 85% of benefits are taxable

Joint

- Combined income between $32,000 and $44,000
 - Up to 50% of benefits are taxable
- Combined income more than $44,000
 - Up to 85% of benefits are taxable

Source: <https://www.ssa.gov/benefits/retirement/planner/taxes.html?ftag=yhf4eb9d17&&#!>

State Taxation of SS Benefits

State tax some or all SS benefits: (12 states)

- CO, CT, KS, MN, MO, MT, NE, NM, ND, RI, UT, VT

No state tax: (9 states)

- AK, FL, NV, NH, SD, TN, TX, WA, WY

All other states (30) exclude SSB from taxation:

- AL, AR, AZ, CA, DC, DE, GA, HI, ID, IL, IN, IA, KY, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, NJ, NY, NC, OH, OK, OR, PA, SC, VA, WI, WV

Strategy: Social Security Benefit Reduction

Begin collecting before FRA and CONTINUE working:

- If FRA is not reached during the entire year:
 - Deduct $1 from benefit payments for every $2 earned above the annual limit, which is $24,480 for 2026.
- Year FRA is reached:
 - Deduct $1 in benefits for every $3. $62,160 for 2026.
 - Only on earnings before the month the FRA is reached
- Beginning the month FRA is reached:
 - No limit on earnings

Retirement Planning

- This is a personal decision and should be based on needs and probable life expectancy.
- Healthy individuals can typically delay benefits
- Delaying benefits will likely increase future benefits for a younger spouse
- Less healthy individuals typically begin receiving benefits at age 62

The Desire

We all desire a financial life that performs to its full potential.

Ideally, this financial life should contain:

- Long term wealth
- Retirement income
- Minimized taxes
- Lasting legacy
- Reduced cost and risk

And, along the way, we seek to keep it organized, flexible, and easy to control.

Financial Decisions

The manner in which we make these decisions presents a real challenge.

We make them:

- One at a time
- At different times
- With different people
- Under different circumstances

We tend to avoid revisiting those decisions, making things worse over time. That causes us to have what we call a "financial junk drawer."

Junk Drawer

Having a "financial junk drawer" undermines our chances for financial success.

The Junk Drawer characteristics:

- Disorganized
- Uncoordinated
- Non-integrated
- Inefficient
- Ineffective
- Hard to manage

ROTH OR Traditional TSP -- WHAT IS THE BEST CHOICE?

▶ Advantages of Roth TSP

- Potentially tax-free withdrawals
- Heirs inherit a tax-free asset
- Roth withdrawals do not increase your taxable income, which may lower taxes on Social Security benefits and/or reduce Medicare premiums.
- Good candidates: Younger employees, those who won't need to withdraw funds for a long time, expect to be in a higher tax bracket when retired and more aggressive investors..

▶ Disadvantages of Roth TSP:

- Paying taxes early
- Five year holding period before withdrawals are tax free
- Higher taxable income may reduce eligibility for some tax credits and deductions while you are working.
- Bad candidates: Will be in a lower tax bracket when funds are withdrawn, expect to need funds from TSP soon, conservative investors.

Critical decision factors

- Can you afford higher taxes when making the Roth contributions
- Tax rate differential (contribution years vs. withdrawal years)
- Time horizon for needing funds to meet annual living expenses
- Rate of return on investments
- Concern about benefiting heirs.

Benefits of Roth Conversion

- ▶ Tax-free distributions
(assuming you follow the 5-year rules)
- ▶ If you are over 59 ½, immediate access to funds tax-free with no penalties
(Principal only, earnings must wait 5 years)
- ▶ No required minimum distributions — freedom of choice
- ▶ Tax-free inheritance to beneficiaries
(spouse can do a rollover)
- ▶ Immunized against future tax law changes

LTC = long-term care

Information collected on a best-effort basis. Rate filing information is sourced from the System for Electronic Rate and Form Filing documents.

Reflects individual long-term care rate filings for Type of Insurance LTC02I, LTC03I, LTC04I and LTC05I with renewal business effective dates between Jan. 1 and June 30, 2022. Excludes pending, disapproved and withdrawn filings; filings where rate change was zero; filings where data on the premium impacted was unavailable; filings where the disposition table was unavailable, notably in the state of Florida.

Written premium, calculated premium change, approved rate change and number of policyholders affected are based on disposition section of rate filings. Approved rate change reflects the calculated premium change divided by written premium.

Top 10 filings shown are based on calculated premium change.

*Approved rate change shown may be the ultimate increase as some states cap the amount an insurer can raise rates in a given year.

¹ Adjustments made to values shown due to discrepancies between disposition table and correspondence from the state insurance regulators within the filing.

² Include LTC premium changes for policies of medico Insurance Co. that have been novated over to Ability Insurance Co.
